Policy Debates and the Conflicts in Georgia (1991-2008) Cécile Druey, 2024-04-15 Russian Foreign Policy Debates and the Conflicts in Georgia 1991 2008 Between Multilateralism and Unilateralism discusses the conflicts and crises in the former Soviet space from a historical perspective and reconstructs the often contradictory approaches of public actors in Russia on how to deal with them Notably it inquires whether the actions suggested follow a multilateral approach one based on pluralist decisions and international law or on the opposite a unilateral one concentrating exclusively on Russia's own national interests to the detriment of commonly agreed on international rules The case of Georgia from the disintegration of the Soviet Union in 1991 to the Five Day War in August 2008 serves as an example illustrating Russian approaches to conflict management Richly illustrated with empirical data the three parts of this book show how foreign and security policy debates in Moscow and their outcomes on the ground evolved from a chaotic policy of ad hoc interventions in the 1990s to a coherent geopolitically informed strategy of coercion and persuasion in the 2000s About a decade and a half before the large scale invasion of Ukraine Moscow had already shown its willingness to go quite far in defending its interests in the former Soviet space Conflict and decision-making in Soviet Russia Sidney I.
