Confronting Power Theorizing Gender Interdisciplinary Perspectives In The Caribbean:

Confronting Power, Theorizing Gender Eudine Barriteau, 2003 Extrait de la couverture This anthology of Caribbean feminist scholarship has several unique features It exposes gender relations as regimes of power and consolidates and advances indigenous feminist theorizing A particularly strong section of the collection deconstructs marginality and masculinity in the Caribbean and provides ground breaking research with policy implications The major breakthrough is the recognition that this area of research includes both men and women as integral to a more adequate conceptualization of society polity and economy thereby enabling scholars to address more fully the realities of social life The temper of the times suggests that a significant watershed in gender studies has been reached Global Gender Research Christine Bose, Minjeong Kim, 2013-01-11 Readers of Global Gender Research will learn to compare and contrast feminist concerns globally gain familiarity with the breadth of gender research and understand the national contexts that produced it This volume provides an in depth comparative picture of the current state of feminist sociological gender and women s studies research in four regions of the world Africa Asia Latin America the Caribbean and Europe as represented by many countries The introductory essay to each region explains how social science research on women and or gender issues has been shaped by economics politics and culture and by trends that are simultaneously local regional and global It familiarizes readers with the wide range of salient issues research methods writing styles and leading authors from around the globe Each regional section includes several chapters on gender research in specific countries that represent the region s diversity and cover the major theoretical and empirical trends that have emerged over time as well as the relationship of key research questions to feminist activism and women s or gender studies Next the editors illustrate this new wave of gender scholarship with translated reprinted samples of research articles from additional countries in the region that cover a wide range of important global topics such as work sexuality masculinities childcare and family issues religion violence law and gender policies Finally this volume provides scholars with extensive bibliographies and a listing of web sites for women s and gender research centers in 85 countries Rethinking Marriage in Francophone African and Caribbean Literatures Cécile Accilien, 2008-01-01 Rethinking Marriage in Francophone African and Caribbean Literatures analyzes novels and films that demonstrate how marriage affects Francophone African and Caribbean women in their respective societies It argues that marriage serves as a catalyst for intense identity formation because it functions as a narrative intersection for a number of overlapping themes on gender and the body class and economics religion interracial and intercultural identity and nation building Marriage provides a narrative space for commentary on cultural practices presented in the works in question as the foundations of cultural identity Gender, Race, and Nationalism in Contemporary Black Politics N. Alexander-Floyd, 2007-08-06 An examination of the interrelationship between gender race narrative and nationalism in black politics specifically within American politics as a whole The author not only highlights the critical role of race and gender she goes further to show how they operate to define political discourse and to determine public policy Downtown Ladies Gina A. Ulysse, 2008-09-15 The Caribbean market woman is ingrained in the popular imagination as the archetype of black womanhood in countries throughout the region Challenging this stereotype and other outdated images of black women Downtown Ladies offers a more complex picture by documenting the history of independent international traders known as informal commercial importers or ICIs who travel abroad to import and export a vast array of consumer goods sold in the public markets of Kingston Jamaica Both by products of and participants in globalization ICIs operate on multiple levels and since their emergence in the 1970s have made significant contributions to the regional national and global economies Gina Ulysse carefully explores how ICIs determined to be self employed struggle with government regulation and other social tensions to negotiate their autonomy Informing this story of self fashioning with reflections on her own experience as a young Haitian anthropologist Ulysse combines the study of political economy with the study of individual and collective identity to reveal the uneven consequences of disrupting traditional class color and gender codes in individual societies and around the world Gender-Based Violence in the Global South Ramona Biholar, Dacia L. Leslie, 2024-02-26 This book amplifies the different voices and experiences of those facing gender based violence GBV in the Global South It explores the localised ways in which marginalised individuals design modes of coping with and address GBV including cultural interpretations and artistic and faith based expressions The book examines GBV triggers prevalence and societal impacts while referring to community national and regional mobilisation to deal with the phenomenon in its various manifestations including physical psychological political domestic and public violence It explores issues related to women s negotiations with the patriarchal underpinnings of GBV the role of the law and history in the perpetuation of GBV the complementary role of culture and faith to legal protection against GBV and access to justice for women and girls In doing so the book exposes understandings and expressions of GBV as well as methodologies and indigenous initiatives to prevent it through local viable solutions The book thus challenges the normalisation of GBV in the Global South Providing concrete and culturally relevant suggestions for challenging ingrained models of gender understandings of violence in the Global South this book will be of interest to academics in the fields of Development Studies Gender Studies Women s Studies Violence and Abuse Studies Human Rights Criminal Law and Socio Legal Studies Love and Power Eudine Barriteau, 2012 A significant focus of the Nita Barrow Unit of the Institute for Gender and Development Studies has been on the centring of power in Caribbean scholarship on gender This collection explores the theme of power to expose the disruptions and dangers lurking in Caribbean discourses on gender and love when these are approached from interrogating the currencies of power continuously circulating in their operations Love and Power Caribbean Discourses on Gender makes several major contributions The chapters are vibrant and grounded in the complex realities of the contemporary Caribbean even as they challenge canonical thought The authors simultaneously critique and create knowledge about the lives of women and men within the Caribbean and its diaspora They employ a range of analytical frameworks to dissect history international relations philosophy intimate partner violence feminist thought and activism mothering masculinities diasporic migration international finance entrepreneurship erotica and desire The book ruptures the feminist silences around love lust and living in Caribbean societies and discourses It problematizes the intersections of love and power love and the power of the erotic and gender and the love of power The volume offers a significant contribution to Caribbean thought by documenting the work of scholars who are creating a multidisciplinary language on relations of gender Co published with Institute for Gender and Development Studies Nita Barrow Unit University of the West Indies Cave Hill Caribbean Quarterly, 2004 The Routledge Companion to Gender and COVID-19 Linda C. McClain, Aziza Ahmed, 2024-04-30 The Routledge Companion to Gender and COVID 19 is the first comprehensive research guide for researchers and students who seek to study and evaluate the complex relationship between gender and COVID 19 This interdisciplinary collection touches on two major themes first how gender played a central role in shaping access to testing treatment and vaccines Second how the pandemic not only deepened existing gender inequalities but also those along the lines of race class sexuality disability and immigration status Bringing together a diverse range of international scholars across a number of disciplinary perspectives this intersectional and comparative focus on COVID explores topics including the pandemic s impact on families employment childcare and elder care human rights as well as gender and political economy and leadership public health law disability rights and abortion access The Routledge Companion to Gender and COVID 19 is an essential volume for scholars and students of Law Gender Studies Sociology Health Economics and Politics

Borders of Visibility Jennifer L. Shoaff, 2017-11-21 An anthropological study of Haitian migrant women s experiences of marginality and violence as they endeavor to make a living and life in the Dominican Republic Book jacket Envisioning Caribbean Futures Brian Meeks, 2007 Employing critical analysis of Caribbean intellectual thought and of the postcolonial political economy Brian Meeks sets about proposing a manifesto for the future What emerges is a programme for the medium term which is pragmatic in its efforts to deal with the current crisis without engaging in the romanticism of an all encompassing revolutionary transformation Meeks suggests a form of participatory reorganization without necessarily dismantling the fundamentals of formal democratic organization Particular emphasis is placed on rural agro producers because their empowerment politically and economically resolves the problem of elite domination while creating the conditions for economic democracy He argues finally that the proposals can become the basis for a more fundamental social and intellectual transformation from following Sylvia Wynter man to human based on democracy community and solidarity

The Political Interests of Gender Revisited Anna G. Jónasdóttir, Kathleen B. Jones, 2009 This collection of theoretical and empirical research on gender and politics assembles contributions from a group of international scholars providing varied accounts of the political interests of gender It examines how to bridge the gap between discursive and socio materialist accounts of gender relations and politics Offering new models for theoretical and empirical research the first five chapters provide a theoretical framework for the collection while the following eight chapters shed light on key concepts through detailed case studies of such topics as human rights women's movements gendered labor markets international monetary policy equality policy and queer politics Publisher's description Gender in the 21st Century Barbara Evelyn Bailey, Elsa Leo-Rhynie, 2004 For more than two decades feminist activists in the Caribbean have been researching teaching writing and collaborating with organisations and groups at all levels to improve the status of women and to protect and advance their rights This volume Gender in the 21st Century commemorates the pioneering work of feminists scholars and activists by reflecting on some of the major issues which have engaged them and influenced their scholarship and work since the early 1980s It also addresses issues at the cutting edge of Gender and Development Studies adopting a strong policy focus for treating current social and gender inequity Finally the volume looks to the future and speculates on the place of gender in the academy as well as its outreach and provides a unique opportunity to explore with highly respected and renowned scholars aspects of the present state of Gender Studies and prospects for the future of this dynamic area of scholarship Still Brave Stanlie Myrise James, Frances Smith Foster, Beverly Guy-Sheftall, 2009 Still Brave is a monumental book that reminds us of the centrality of Black Womanist genius and talent grounded in courage and struggle We can never understand what it means to be modern new world or African without this precious volume Cornel West author of Race Matters Cheryl Clarke Angela Davis bell hooks June Jordan Audre Lorde and Alice Walker from the pioneers of black women's studies comes Still Brave The Evolution of Black Women's Studies the definitive collection of race and gender writings today Including Alice Walker's groundbreaking elucidation of the term womanist discussions of women's rights as human rights and a piece on the Obama factor the collection speaks to the ways that feminism has evolved and how black women have confronted racism within it Feminist Africa, 2006 Enjoying Power Eudine Barriteau, Alan Gregor Copley, 2006 Presents a fascinating range of studies on the political life of one of the Caribbean's most imposing leaders of the twentieth century British Bulletin of Publications on Latin America, the Caribbean, Portugal and Spain, 2008

Caribbean Women Veronica Marie Gregg, 2005 Volume 1 of an anthology of non-fiction writings by Caribbean women from the turn of the nineteenth century to 1980 It builds on existing bodies of knowledge and inquiry into women's lives and their contributions to the creation and development of Caribbean intellectual history A resource for students and professors

Governing Sound Jocelyne Guilbault, 2007-09-15 Written in two parts part 1 explores the development of Calypso from its emergence in the pre-colonial period to the post-colonial period In part 2 the focus is on the new Carnival musical practices of soca rapso chutney soca and ragga soca and the ways in which they contributed to the redefinition of Trinidadian cultural politics in the neoliberal era The new rationalities contingencies desires and musical experiments that animated the new musics and enabled them to gradually displace calypso from its centrality as national expression is examined Women and the Law Libby S.
