Conjunctions 11 Biannual Volumes Of New Writing:

Songs of Degrees John Taggart, 1994 Songs of Degrees brings together 19 related essays on contemporary American poetry and poetics published as journal articles between 1975 and 1989 by poet and theorist John Taggart Over the past two decades Taggart has been a significant intellectual and artistic force for a number of major American poets By focusing on the work of several major and less well known American experimental poets from the 1930s to the present Taggart not only traces the origins and evolution of this experimental tendency in recent poetry but also develops new theoretical tools for reading and appreciating these innovative and complex works The essays are written from the engaged perspective of an active poet for other poets as well as for those who would like to read and think about poetry in a participatory fashion The essays thus present inside narratives of some of the most challenging contemporary American poetry The range of Songs of Degrees extends from the Black Mountain poets Charles Olson and Robert Duncan to such language poets as Bruce Andrews and Susan Howe Taggart closely examines the work of the objectivist poets George Oppen and Louis Zukofsky Three essays are devoted to each of these poets providing detailed readings of individual poems and considerations of each poet's overall achievement Taggart also concentrates on poets whose work has not been widely recognized or is only now beginning to be recognized These include Theodore Enslin Frank Samperi and William Bronk Taggart's essay Reading William Bronk is the first extensive reading of this relatively unknown but truly outstanding poet Taggart's essays also focus on his own poetry He describes the composition process and the thinking behind it as well as the poet's own evolving sense of what the poem can and ought to be These very personal reflections are unique in their attention to current questions concerning form and the issue of spiritual vision Avoiding political and cultural reductionism Taggart throughout keeps his eye and heart on the poetic singing his own Songs of Degrees even as he discovers notes of the same music in the works of other Aesthetics,

Anderson, Jo Shapcott, 2002 Elizabeth Bishop is one of the greatest poets of the 20th century When she died in 1979 she had only published four collections yet had won virtually every major American literary award including the Pulitzer Prize She maintained close friendships with poets such as Marianne Moore and Robert Lowell and her work has always been highly regarded by other writers In surveys of British poets carried out in 1984 and 1994 she emerged as a surprising major choice or influence for many from Andrew Motion and Craig Raine to Kathleen Jamie and Lavinia Greenlaw A virtual orphan from an early age Elizabeth Bishop was brought up by relatives in New England and Nova Scotia The tragic circumstances of her life from alcoholism to repeated experiences of loss in her relationships with women nourished an outsider's poetry notable both for its reticence and tentativeness She once described a feeling that everything is interstitial and reminds us in her poetry in a way that is both radical and subdued that understanding is at best provisional and that most vision is peripheral Since her death a definitive edition of Elizabeth Bishop's Complete Poems 1983 has been published along with The Collected Prose 1984 her letters in One Art 1994 her paintings in Exchanging Hats 1996 and Brett C Millier's important biography 1993 In America there have been numerous critical studies and books of academic essays but in Britain only studies by Victoria Harrison 1995 and Anne Stevenson 1998 have done anything to raise Bishop's critical profile Elizabeth Bishop Poet of the Periphery was the first collection of essays on Bishop to be published in Britain and draws on work presented at the first UK Elizabeth Bishop conference held at Newcastle University It brings together papers by both academic critics and leading poets including Michael Donaghy Vicki Feaver Jamie McKendrick Deryn Rees Jones and Anne Stevenson Academic contributors include Professor Barbara Page of Vassar College home of the Elizabeth Bishop Papers
