Erckmann-Chatrian,2015-07-04 Excerpt from The Conscript A Story of the French War of 1813 Instead of following Madame Therese with stories celebrating the victories of Napoleon and thus appealing to their compatriots love of glory and military illusions MM Erckmann Chatrian take up next the tragic and far more significant story of 1812 13 With The Conscript begins their long sustained and eloquent sermon against war and war wagers the exordium so to say of their arraignment of Napoleon for wanton and insatiate love of conquest The Conscript is certainly one of the most impressive statements of the darker side of the national pursuit of military glory that have ever been made About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
