French Cinema Alan J. Singerman, Michèle Bissière, 2018-09-15 Like its French language companion volume Le Cinéma français contemporain Manuel de classe Alan Singerman and Michèle Bissière's Contemporary French Cinema A Student's Book offers a detailed look at recent French cinema through its analyses of twenty notable and representative French films that have appeared since 1980 Sure to delight Anglophone fans of French film it can be used with equal success in English language courses and when paired with its companion volume dual language ones Acclaim for Le Cinéma français contemporain Manuel de classe From Le Dernier Métro to Intouchables Bissière and Singerman cover the latest trends of French cinema emphasizing context and analytical method as Singerman did in Apprentissage du cinéma français Focus 2004 The authors offer a selection of films most French cinephiles will applaud and they incorporate insights from some of the best critical work on French cinema Students of French film will also find all the bibliographical pointers they need to dig deeper and instructors will appreciate the pedagogical components included in the chapters Jonathan Walsh Department of French Studies Wheaton College Massachusetts This remarkable book comes to us from two seasoned teachers and critics and beautifully complements an earlier work Alan Singerman's Apprentissage du cinéma français The time period covered more targeted here than in the preceding text is admirably well chosen and the breakdown by broad category each offering multiple options guides the teacher while offering a choice among an abundance of interesting films The preliminary chapters both succinct and informative give students an excellent overview of French cinema as a whole and of the technical knowledge needed for film analysis Each of the subsequent chapters offers an indispensable introduction discussing the plot director production actors reception and context of the film in question and also provides a very useful filmography and bibliography an exemplary work Brigitte E Humbert Department of French and Francophone Studies Middlebury College

A Companion to Contemporary French Cinema Alistair Fox, Michel Marie, Raphaëlle Moine, Hilary Radner, 2015-01-27 A Companion to Contemporary French Cinema presents a comprehensive collection of original essays addressing all aspects of French cinema from 1990 to the present day Featuring contributions from an international cast of established and emerging scholars of French cinema these innovative essays highlight the diversity of French films and filmmaking techniques that have emerged since the New Wave era Themes and topics covered include the social political and cultural contexts of recent French cinema contemporary filmmakers and performers genres cycles and cinematic forms gender and sexuality and emerging trends and innovative new filmmaking forms Among the French films examined in depth are hit comedies including Bienvenue chez les Ch'tis and Intouchables blockbusters such as The Crimson Rivers police films like 36th Precinct historical films such as Farewell My Queen and Days of Glory celebrated animated features such as Kirikou and the Sorceress films representative of the new French extreme such as Romance Baisemoi and Trouble Every Day and numerous auteur films ranging from Bruno Dumont's Hors Satan and Franois Ozon's shorts to Pascale Ferran's Lady Chatterley and Alain Guiraudie's L'Inconnu du lac Combining cutting edge scholarship with wide ranging methodological approaches and perspectives A Companion to Contemporary French Cinema is an invaluable resource for students and scholars of French film as well as all those interested in the evolution of this celebrated cinematic tradition

Music in Contemporary French Cinema Phil Powrie, 2017-06-29 This book explores composed scores and pre-existing music in French cinema from 1985 to 2015 so as to identify critical musical moments It shows how heritage films construct space through music generating what Powrie calls third space music while also working to contain the strong women characters found in French heritage films through the use of leitmotifs and musical cues He analyses fiction films in which the protagonists perform at the piano showing how musical performance supports the performance of gender Building on aspects of musical performance and in particular the use of songs performed in films Powrie uses a database of 300 films since 2010 to theorize the intervention of music at critical moments as a crystal song Applying Roland Barthes's concept of the punctum and Gilles Deleuze's concept of the crystal image Powrie establishes the importance of the crystal song which reconfigures time as a crystallization of past present and future

Unraveling French Cinema T. Jefferson Kline, 2009-12-21 Unraveling French Cinema provides a much needed introduction to the complexities of French film for students cineastes and the movie loving public Looks at the differences between French and American national cinema Explores how French directors shape their films around two potentially divergent goals the narration of a story and an elaboration of some theory about film itself Demystifies the difficulty of French cinema allowing the American movie goer to enjoy films that are too often perplexing at a first viewing Offers extended analyses of classic New Wave and contemporary French films including L'Atalante Adele H The Rules of the Game and Cache
