Contemporary Documentary A Critical Introduction:

New Documentary Stella Bruzzi, 2002-01-04 New Documentary A Critical Introduction provides a comprehensive account of the last two decades of documentary filmmaking in Britain the US and Europe Stella Bruzzi's engaging textbook discusses key genres filmmakers and issues for the study of non fiction film and television including key texts such as the Zapruder film of Kennedy's assassination Shoah Hoop Dreams and Michael Apted's 7 Up series documentary genres from current affairs programming to fly on the wall documentaries to reality tv series the work of documentary filmmakers such as Emile de Antonio Fred Wiseman Nick Broomfield Molly Dineen and Paul Watson the work of avant garde filmmakers such as Chris Marker Patrick Keiller Peter Greenaway and Wim Wenders whose films challenge conventions of documentary filmmaking movies based on historical events such as JFK and Nixon faux documentaries such as This is Spinal Tap Bob Roberts and Man Bites Dog gender identity queer theory performance race and spectatorship Bruzzi shows how theories of documentary filmmaking can be applied to contemporary texts and genres and discusses the relationship between recent innovative examples of the genre and the more established canon of documentary

New Documentary Stella Bruzzi, 2006-09-27 Praise for New Documentary It's refreshing to find a book that cuts through the tired old debates that have surrounded documentary film and television It heralds a welcome new approach Sight and Sound Documentary practice changes so fast that books on the subject are often out of date before they are published Bruzzi's achievement is to have understood the genre as an activity based on performance rather than observation This is a fresh perspective which illuminates the fundamental shifts that will continue to take place in the genre as it enters its second century John Ellis Professor of Media Arts Royal Holloway University of London New Documentary provides a contemporary look at documentary and fresh and challenging ways of theorising the non fiction film As engaging as the original this second edition features thorough updates to the existing chapters as well as a brand new chapter on contemporary cinema release documentaries This new edition includes Contemporary films such as Capturing the Friedmans tre et avoir Fahrenheit 9 11 The Fog of War and Touching the Void as well as more canonical texts such as Hoop Dreams and Shoah Additional interviews with influential practitioners such as director Michael Apted and producer Stephen Lambert A comprehensively revised discussion of modern observational documentary including docusoaps reality television and formatted documentaries The work of documentary filmmakers such as Nicholas Barker Errol Morris Nick Broomfield Molly Dineen and Michael Moore and the work of Avant Garde filmmakers such as Chris Marker and Patrick Keiller Gender identity queer theory performance race and spectatorship Bruzzi shows how theories of documentary filmmaking can be applied to contemporary texts and genres and discusses the relationship between recent innovative examples of the genre and the more established canon of documentary

Issues in Contemporary Documentary Jane Chapman, 2009-08-17 Jane Chapman brings to life the challenges of contemporary documentary by balancing theoretical discussion with use of cutting edge material from Europe and North America and the developing world The Art of Record John Corner,1996-11-15 This is an overview of the theoretical issues and critical debates around documentary whose attempts to depict reality and to comment on it have provoked disagreement from the 1920s to the present day Trans Narratives Ana Horvat,Orly Lael Netzer,Sarah McRae,Julie Rak,2021-09-30 Recently trans has taken on a number of important theoretical and critical meanings inside and outside the academy As a prefix trans can attach itself to other words to express or describe movement and change as it does in the terms transnational or transmedia Trans is also an adjective when it is part of a word that signifies an identity or expression Trans has worked as an adjective to destabilize established ideas about gender as it makes new senses of what gender can mean for trans people Much of the study of life writing is about the study of identity and the possibilities for lives that stories of identity make possible In that spirit Trans Narratives trans transmedia transnational represents an opportunity for critical work about life writing by trans people to be featured as it seeks to interrogate the idea of trans in multiple registers bringing a prefix to the center of the current field of life writing studies It aims to understand through life writing and its theory what trans means when we talk about identities and bodies and to understand better what the critical terms transmedia and transnational can mean for the field of life writing The Chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of a b Auto Biography Studies The Journalistic Imagination Richard Keeble,Sharon Wheeler,2007-09-14 With an international focus and a broad historical scope this student friendly book focuses on the neglected journalism of writers more famous for their novels or plays and explores the specific functions of journalism within the public sphere and the literary qualities of journalism Choreography and Verbatim Theatre Jess McCormack,2018-05-31 How might spoken words be translated into choreography This book addresses the field of verbatim dance theatre around which there is currently limited existing scholarly writing Grounded in extensive research the project combines dance studies and performance studies theory detailed analysis of professional choreographic work and examples of experimental practice to then employ the framework of translation studies in order to consider what a focus on movement and an attempt to dance move other people s words can offer to the field of verbatim theatre It investigates ways to understand articulate and engage in the process of choreographing movement as a response to verbatim spoken language It is directed at an international audience of dance studies scholars theatre and performance studies scholars and dance theatre practitioners and it would be appropriate reading material for undergraduate students seeking to develop their understanding of choreographic processes that use written spoken text as a starting point and graduate students working in the area of adaptation verbatim theatre physical theatre or devised theatre Northernness, Northern Culture and Northern Narratives Gabby Riches,Karl Spracklen,Spencer Swain,2018-10-18 Northernness Northern culture and Northern narratives are a common aspect of popular culture and the North of England like other Northernnesses in Europe is a collection of narratives myths stereotypes and symbols In politics and everyday culture Northern culture is paradoxically a site of resistance against an inauthentic

South a source of working class identity and a source of elite marginalisation This book provides a key to theorising about Northernness and a platform to scholars working away at exposing the North in different aspects of culture The aims of this book are twofold to re theorise the North and Northern culture and to highlight the ways in which constructions of Northernness and Northern culture are constituted alongside other gender racial and regional identities The contributions presented here theorise Northernness in relation to space leisure gender race class social realism and everyday embodied practices A main thematic thread that weaves the whole book together is the notion that Northernness and the North is both an imagined discursive construct and an embodied subjectivity thus creating a paradox between the reality of North and its representation This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal for Cultural Research The
