Hard Lines Daniel Cross Turner, William Wright, 2016 A collection of contemporary poems exploring the grit of work love and the land down South Daniel Cross Turner and William Wright's anthology Hard Lines Rough South Poetry centers on the darker side of southern experience while presenting a remarkable array of poets from diverse backgrounds in the American South As tough minded as they are high minded the sixty contemporary poets and two hundred poems anthologized in Hard Lines enhance the powerful genre of Grit Lit The volume gathers the work of poets who have for some decades formed the heart of southern poetry as well as that of emerging voices who will soon become significant figures in southern literature These poems sting our senses into awareness of a gritty world down South hard work hard love hard drinking hard times but they also explore the importance of the land and rural experience as well as race gender and class based conflicts Readers will see hear for poetry is meant to ring in the ears and feel for poetry is meant to beat in the blood there is plenty of raucousness in this anthology And yet the cultural conflicts that ignite southern wildness are often depicted in a manner that is lyrical without becoming lugubrious mournful but not maudlin Some of these poets are coming to terms with a visibly transforming culture a roughness in and of itself Indeed many of these poets are helping to change the definition of the South The anthology also features biographical information on each poet in addition to further reading suggestions and scholarly sources on contemporary poetry Featured Poets Betty Adcock David Bottoms Kathryn Stripling Byer James Dickey Rodney Jones Yusef Komunyakaa Ron Rash Dave Smith Natasha Trethewey Charles Wright Fred Chappell Kelly Cherry Allison Adelle Hedge Coke Kate Daniels Kwame Dawes Claudia Emerson Andrew Hudgins T R Hummer Robert Morgan Ellen Bryant Voigt Dan Albergotti Tarfia Faizullah Forrest Gander Terrance Hayes Judy Jordan John Lane Michael McFee Paul Ruffin Steve Scafi Jake Adam York The Southern Poetry Anthology: South Carolina Stephen snapshot album of a timeless place as it is represented at the present moment For reasons that are not entirely clear there has been an explosion of poetry in the Southern Appalachian region in recent years Perhaps this creative surge has been inspired by the rapid changes in the region as the vast hunting ranges of the Cherokees are crossed by superhighways and golf courses casinos condominiums and shopping malls spread into the shadows of the highest peaks Or perhaps the poetry is a celebration of a region still discovering itself its heritage and resources What is clear is that much of the best poetry of our time is being written in or about the Southern mountains with unprecedented diversity artistry freshness and humanity Here is a poetry of place and people of history sometimes sad often comic a poetry of haunting voices vision music and story This anthology is a showcase of some of the best poetry we have from the place the music comes from Robert Morgan

The Southern Poetry Anthology: Tennessee Jesse Graves, Paul Ruffin, 2013 The state of Tennessee is widely recognized as a home of great music and its geographic regions are as distinct as Memphis blues Nashville country and Bristol old time sounds Tennessee's literary heritage offers equal variety and quality as home to the Fugitive Agrarian Poets as well as a signature voice from the Black Arts Movement Few states present such a multicultural panorama as does the Volunteer State The poems in The Southern Poetry Anthology Volume VI Tennessee engage the storied histories diverse cultures and vibrant rural and urban landscapes of the region Among the more than 120 poets represented are Pulitzer and Bollingen Prize winner Charles Wright Brittingham Award winner Lynn Powell and Agnes Lynch Starrett Prize winners Rick Hilles and Arthur Smith The book includes an introduction from renowned poet Jeff Daniel Marion who in 1978 received the first literary fellowship from the Tennessee Arts Commission Too the book celebrates relatively young and gifted voices This important anthology will stand for many years as the definitive poetic document for the state of Tennessee Conceived by Series Editor William Wright in 2003 The Southern Poetry Anthology is a multivolume project celebrating established and emerging poets of the American South Inspired by single volume anthologies such as Leon Stokesbury's The Made Thing Gil Allen's A Ninety Six Sampler and Guy Owen and Mary C Williams Contemporary Southern Poetry an Anthology The Southern Poetry Anthology aspires to provide readers with a documentary like survey of the best poetry being written in the American South at the present moment Published exclusively by Texas Review Press the series provides the most comprehensive representation of Southern poets currently available and is currently being used in university classrooms across the South

Another South Bill Lavender, 2003 Gathers the best work of flourishing but often neglected avant garde southern poets Another South is an anthology of poetry from contemporary southern writers who are working in forms that are radical innovative and visionary Highly experimental and challenging in nature the poetry in this volume with its syntactical disjunctions formal revolutions and typographic playfulness represents the direction of a new breed of southern writing that is at once universal in its appeal and regional in its flavor Focusing on poets currently residing in the South the anthology includes both emerging and established voices in the national and international literary world From the invocations of Andy

Young's Vodou Headwashing Ceremony to the blues informed poems of Lorenzo Thomas and Honore Jeffers from the different voicings of John Lowther and Kalamu ya Salaam to the visual multi genre art of Jake Berry David Thomas Roberts and Bob Grumman the poetry in Another South is rich in variety and enthusiastic in its explorations of new ways to embody place and time These writers have made the South lush with a poetic avant garde all its own not only redefining southern identity and voice but also offering new models of what is possible universally through the medium of poetry Hank Lazer's introductory essay about Kudzu textuality contextualizes the work by these contemporary innovators Like the uncontrollable runaway vine that entwines the southern landscape their poems are hyperfertile stretching their roots and shoots relentlessly at once destructive and regenerative In making a radical departure from nostalgic southern literary voices these poems of polyvocal abundance are closer in spirit to speaking in tongues or apocalyptic southern folk art primitive astonishing and mystic

The Southern Poetry Anthology: Mississippi Stephen Gardner, William Wright, Paul Ruffin, 2007 Often celebrated as the Literary State of the South and quoted to have more writers per capita than any other state in the Union Mississippi remains famous for its fiction writers William Faulkner Eudora Welty Barry Hannah Willie Morris and Walker Percy among many others Relatively unsung are those who dedicate themselves to the older craft of poetry This book seeks to alleviate that absence and collect the best poetry written in contemporary Mississippi to share with curious readers the luminous verses this beautiful state engenders The second edition of The Southern Poetry Anthology Volume II Mississippi seeks to continue the aspiration of the series to take a snapshot of contemporary poetry in the American South and to observe how the sense of place manifests itself in the work of native poets or those just passing through Featured in this edition poets Natasha Trethewey Gordon Weaver Angela Ball Paul Ruffin Julia Johnson T R Hummer and many others reveal the Magnolia State as a place in which brilliant art continues to bloom
