Contesting Global Governance Multilateral Economic Institutions And Global Social Movements

Nicholas Bayne, Stephen Woolcock

Contesting Global Governance Multilateral Economic Institutions And Global Social Movements:

Contesting Global Governance Robert O'Brien, 2000 This book argues that increasing engagement between international institutions and sectors of civil society is producing a new form of global governance The authors investigate complex multilateralism by studying the relationship between three multilateral economic institutions the IMF World Bank and World Trade Organization and three global social movements environmental labour and women s movements They provide a rich comparative analysis of the institutional response to social movement pressure tracing institutional change policy modification and social movement tactics as they struggle to influence the rules and practices governing trade finance and development regimes The contest to shape global governance is increasingly being conducted upon a number of levels and amongst a diverse set of actors Analysing a unique breadth of institutions and movements this book charts an important part of that contest

Global Civil Society and Transversal Hegemony Karen M. Buckley, 2013-05-29 There has been clear recognition of tendencies towards uncritically celebrating resistance and the need for critical appraisal within the literature on globalization and contestation This book provides a conceptual history of global civil society and a critical examination of the politics of resistance in the global political economy It uses a dialectical method of analysis to illustrate the conceptual stasis of mainstream approaches to questions of globalization and contestation while demonstrating the potential of a Gramscian approach to reconstitute hegemony as a key analytical and explanatory tool Buckley offers insight to the movements of transversal hegemony and existent and anticipated modes of social relation through the case studies of the World Social Forum and the World People s Conference on Climate Change Offering a more comprehensive understanding of change in the global political economy this book will be of interest to students and scholars of international political economy globalization global civil society sociology and the politics resistance

The Global Governance Reader Rorden Wilkinson, 2005 This Reader provides students and scholars with a comprehensive and considered collection of articles covering the most theoretical and empirical contributions by leading specialists in the field

Rethinking Power, Institutions and Ideas in World Politics Amitav Acharya, 2014-01-10 The study of international relations has traditionally been dominated by Western ideas and practices and marginalized the voice and experiences of the non Western states and societies As the world moves to a post Western era it is imperative that the field of IR acquires a more global meaning and relevance Drawing together the work of renowned scholar Amitav Acharya and framed by a new introduction and conclusion written for the volume this book exposes the narrow meaning currently attached to some of the key concepts and ideas in IR and calls for alternative and broader understandings of them The need for recasting the discipline has motivated and undergirded Acharya s own scholarship since his entry into the field over three decades ago This book reflects his own engagement quarrels and compromise and concludes with suggestions for new pathways to a Global IR a forward looking and inclusive enterprise that is reflective of the multiple and global heritage of IR in an changing and interconnected world It is essential reading for anyone who is concerned about the history development and future of international relations and international relations theory Comparative Law Yearbook of International Business Christian Campbell, 2023-06-12

The Comparative Law Yearbook of International Business published under the aegis of the Center for International Legal Studies Austria in this 44th volume aims to add to the contemporary discourse by exploring a wide array of challenges faced in the arena of business law It serves to provide insight to business law practitioners and academics on the latest developments The following topics have been discussed How uniformity of the treaties and conventions is compromised after they are subjected to the varied interpretation of domestic law How the contractual laws of different jurisdictions deal with situations such as global health crises The role of the World Trade Organization in enhancing the legitimacy of global economic governance within the scope of the trade laws How the concept of naked licensing in trademark law differs in the United States United Kingdom and India How the best effort clauses operate as a mechanism to deal with unenforceable obligations in pandemic like situations and how it is difficult to implement and comply with the same Whether PRIME Finance is the last link in the global governance of financial institutions on international law making or just a part of the social circle Whether mediation should be made compulsory for all commercial litigation cases or is it time for the new rendition of Halsey v Milton Keynes The legal challenges faced by the adoption of Insurtech in the Fintech Industry How the ex post mechanism of Corporate Insolvency and Bankruptcy laws differs with respect to the rights and position of creditors in the liquidation process in India and Germany How the Corporate Governance Code varies across different jurisdictions such as Mainland China Hong Kong South Korea Singapore Japan and Germany How the international investment law uncovers the inequalities between foreign investors and states developed and developing states and foreign and domestic investors The authors are practitioners and academics from Argentina Australia Belgium China Finland Germany Hong Kong India Singapore South Korea and the United Kingdom They provide a nuanced perspective on a large spectrum of issues witnessed in the arena of business laws Trade Politics Brian Hocking, Steven McGuire, 2004-07-31 Leading experts provide a clear overview of the evolving environment of trade politics and the current issues surrounding its development Development and Advocacy Deborah Eade, 2002 Most major development NGOs dedicate significant resources to advocacy Many also work to inform and shape public opinion whether through advertising or fundraising or through education programmes They argue that fundamental change is not achieved until the policy environment is right and cannot be sustained without a ground swell of support for reform In recent years however advocacy work has come under increasing criticism NGOs are challenged on the grounds of legitimacy whom do they represent and to whom are they accountable effectiveness what practical impact does high level advocacy have on the lives of people living in poverty and who is to judge this role should NGOs try to combine funding and advocacy or do these demand different kinds of South North relationship strategy are NGOs too easily seduced by agencies like the World Bank or by the corporate sector When does constructive engagement with these powerful bodies turn into co option by them As international grassroots advocacy is becoming more vocal thanks to new communication technologies what is the appropriate role for Northern NGOs

Transnational Agrarian Movements Confronting Globalization Saturnino M. Borras, Jr., Marc Edelman, Cristóbal Kay, 2008-11-10 Readers of this book will encounter peasants and farmers who struggle at home and traverse national borders to challenge the World Trade Organization and other powerful global institutions Here are activists in Brazil who uproot plots of genetically modified soybeans forest dwellers in Indonesia who chop down rubber plantations to cultivate rice to feed their families runaway villages in China that take up arms to resist corrupt officials and Mexican migrants who having exited in desperation return from abroad to transform their communities Little known transnational agrarian movements of the early twentieth century share the stage with more recent high profile global alliances such as V a Campesina Rather than simply celebrating a dynamic sector of international civil society the authors tackle thorny questions of successes and failures ethical and political dilemmas troubled alliances with NGOs protest repertoires and representation claims The essays in Transnational Agrarian Movements Confronting Globalization analyze contemporary collective action in all its complexity acknowledging ambiguities and contradictions posing challenging questions and providing concrete strategies for scholars and activists Contributors include Suraya Afiff Xochitl Bada Brenda Baletti Saturnino M Borras Jr Marc Edelman Jonathan Fox Harriet Friedmann Tamara M Johnson Crist bal Kay Kevin Malseed Philip McMichael Amber McNair Peter Newell Nancy Lee Peluso Noer Fauzi Rachman Ian Scoones Kathy Le Mons Walker and Wendy Wolford

International Law and Global Governance Michelle Sanson, 2008

The New Economic Diplomacy Nicholas Bayne, Stephen Woolcock, 2007 Explains how states conduct their external economic relations in the 21st century how they make decisions domestically how they negotiate internationally and how these processes interact This work is suitable for students interested in the decision making processes in foreign economic policy including those studying International Relations

Empire of Knowledge Vinay Lal, 2005 Offering a dissenting perspective on the politics of knowledge this book is a powerful critique of the intellectual and cultural assumptions that underline the current processes of development modernization and globalization The author demonstrates that the world as we know it today is understood largely through categories that are the product of Western knowledge systems His critique of the existing world order and his vision of possible futures encourage the reader to engage in the study of the West Rather than merely reversing Orientalism such a study would create a body of knowledge about the West that would enable people to better understand both themselves and the West This important and lucidly written book deconstructs the cultural assumptions that have emerged alongside capitalism and offers a devastating critique of the politics of knowledge at the heart of all powerbroking

Human Rights in the Global Political Economy Tony Evans, 2011 Tony Evans critically investigates the theory and practice of human rights in the current global order Evans covers a range of contentious debates as he considers critiques of the prevailing conceptions of human rights He then explores the changing global context of human rights issues the nature and status of human rights within that context and recent institutional responses With its emphasis on policy and process his book offers a rich analysis of the politics of today s human rights regime Readings on the Rhetoric of Social Protest Charles E. Morris, Stephen H. Browne, 2006 Governing Global Trade Theodore H. Cohn, 2002 Cohn s topic of global trade is of enormous and proliferating interest He provides a good background from 1945 to the present and on core contemporary themes such as civil society participation and the domesticization of the trade agenda Cohn s political science background will appeal direct to a university audience and a broader public policy market while also suitable for those interested in trade in the cognates of economics and law This work s theoretical framework embraces and synthesizes the major approaches in the field of international relations and will be appropriate for the dominant schools of realists and liberal institutionalists alike This seminal work has been awarded the British Columbia Political Science Association Weller Prize for 2003 Political Economy and the Changing Global Order Richard Stubbs, Geoffrey R. D. Underhill, 2006 Covering the basics necessary for a course in international political economy IPE this text comes from a non American critical perspective and the contributors are drawn from prominent scholars of IPE around the world Legitimacy in an Age of Global Politics Achim Hurrelmann, Steffen Schneider, Jens Steffek, 2007-10-11 In spite of the conspicuous lack of normatively plausible alternatives to liberal democracy it is now widely held that the age of globalization has ushered in serious challenges to the democratic legitimacy of the nation state This alleged crisis of the western nation state seems to be compounded by the legitimacy deficits of newly emerging governance structures at the international and supranational level The contributors to this book explore the frontiers of normative and empirical legitimacy research whilst drawing upon a range of pertinent conceptual and methodological issues

Crosscurrents Mark Charlton, 2004-11-25 Turn your classroom into a forum for debate and discussion with the Fourth Edition of Crosscurrents Experts from around the world debate important issues related to the study of international relations and foreign policy from both a Canadian and an international perspective Author Mark Charlton frames each issue with a well written introductory essay and post script to further enhance the learning experience With its lively and effective yes no debate format Crosscurrents continues to provide students with a stimulating collection of essays that encourages the development of critical thought and analytical skills involving major issues of the day China, Africa and South Africa Garth Le Pere, Garth Shelton, 2007 China s growing engagement with Africa has major implications for both sides and has added an important strategic context to South South co operation In this volume two leading South African scholars examine this dynamic which takes on added meaning because of the new Sino South African axis Policy Innovations for Transformative Change Katja Hujo, Harald Braumann, 2016 The 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development and the Sustainable Development Goals are a global commitment to transforming our world and eradicating poverty in all its forms everywhere The challenge now is to put this vision into action Policy Innovations for Transformative Change the UNRISD

2016 Flagship Report helps unpack the complexities of the 2030 Sustainable Development Agenda in a unique way by focusing on the innovations and pathways to policy change and analysing which policies and practices will lead to social economic and ecological justice Drawing on numerous policy innovations from the South the report goes beyond buzzwords and brings to the development community a definition of transformation which can be used as a benchmark for policy making toward the 2030 Agenda intended to leave no one behind Bringing together five years of UNRISD research across six areas social policy care policy social and solidarity economy eco social policy domestic resource mobilization and politics and governance the report explores what transformative change really means for societies and individuals Markets and Authorities Jochen Lorentzen, Marcello De Cecco, 2002 In a second volume of essays since Susan Strange's 1998 death seeking to further her work friends she had worked with at the European University Institute in Fiesole discuss the problems of the global financial system where she had left it Among the fundamental questions they delve into are who if anyone runs the global economy and who benefits and suffers from it They focus on global finance because it has the capacity and the propensity to wreck the orderly functioning of the capitalist system Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR
