Contesting Space In Colonial Singapore:

Contesting Space in Colonial Singapore Brenda S. A. Yeoh, 2003 In the British colonial city of Singapore municipal authorities and Asian communities faced off over numerous issues As the city expanded disputes arose in connection with sanitation housing street names control over pedestrian five foot ways and sacred spaces such as burial grounds Brenda Yeoh's Contesting Space in Colonial Singapore details these conflicts and how they shaped the city The British administration structured the private and public environments of the city with an eye toward shaping human behavior following scientific principles and the lessons of urban planning in other parts of the world For the Asian communities Singapore was the place where they lived according to their own values priorities and resources The two perceptions of the city frequently clashed and the author reads the cityscape of Singapore as the result of this contest between discipline and resistance Drawing on meticulous research and a theoretically sophisticated use of cultural and social geography post colonial historical discourse and social theory the author offers a compelling picture of a critical stage in Singapore's past It is an important contribution to the study of colonial cities and an indispensable resource for understanding the shape of modern Singapore Contesting Space in Colonial Singapore

Contesting Space in Colonial Singapore Brenda S. A. Yeoh, 2003 In the British colonial city of Singapore municipal authorities and Asian communities faced off over numerous issues As the city expanded various disputes concerning issues such as sanitation housing and street names arose This volume details these conflicts and how they shaped the city Contesting Space Brenda S. A. Yeoh, 1996 This book examines the nature of conflict between the colonial authorities which wanted the city ordered sanitized and amenable to regulation and the Asian communities who lived and worked in colonial Singapore and had their own values priorities and resources The result was an environment that embodied and expressed the tensions and negotiations conflicts and compromises between the different groups Trans-Colonial Urban Space in Palestine Maha

Samman, 2013-06-26 Taking a multidisciplinary approach to examine the dynamics of ethno national contestation and colonialism in Israel Palestine this book investigates the approaches for dealing with the colonial and post colonial urban space resituating them within the various theoretical frameworks in colonial urban studies The book uses Henry Lefebvre's three constituents of space perceived conceived and lived to analyse past and present colonial cases interactively with time It mixes the non temporal conceptual framework of analysis of colonialism using literature of previous colonial cases with the inter temporal abstract Lefebvrian concepts of space to produce an inter temporal re reading of them Israeli colonialism in the occupied areas of 1967 its contractions from Sinai and Gaza and the implications on the West Bank are analysed in detail By illustrating the transformations in colonial urban space at different temporal stages a new phase is proposed the trans colonial This provides a conceptual means to avoid the pitfalls of neo colonial and post colonial influences experienced in previous cases and the book goes on to highlight the implications of such a phase on the Palestinians It is an important contribution to studies on Middle East Politics and Urban Geography A Guide to Spatial History Konrad

Lawson, Riccardo Bavaj, Bernhard Struck, 2022-01-07 This guide provides an overview of the thematic areas analytical aspects and avenues of research which together form a broader conversation around doing spatial history Spatial history is not a field with clearly delineated boundaries For the most part it lacks a distinct unambiguous scholarly identity It can only be thought of in relation to other typically more established fields Indeed one of the most valuable utilities of spatial history is its capacity to facilitate conversations across those fields Consequently it must be discussed in relation to a variety of historiographical contexts Each of these have their own intellectual genealogies institutional settings and conceptual path dependencies With this in mind this guide surveys the following areas territoriality infrastructure and borders nature environment and landscape city and home social space and political protest spaces of knowledge spatial imaginaries cartographic representations and historical GIS research Pandemics in Singapore, 1819-2022 Kah Seng Loh, Li Yang Hsu, 2023-11-22 Singapore has faced many pandemics over the centuries from plague smallpox and cholera to influenza and novel coronaviruses By examining how different governments responded this book considers what we can learn from their experiences Public health strategies in the city state were often affected by issues of ethnicity and class as well as failure to take heed of key learnings from previous outbreaks Pandemics are a recurrent and normal feature of the human experience Alongside medical innovation and evidence based policymaking the study of history is also crucial in preparing for future pandemics Monsoon Marketplace Elmo Gonzaga, 2023-12-05 Provides vivid accounts of commercial and leisure spaces that captivated the public imagination in the past but have since been destroyed forgotten or refurbished Monsoon Marketplace uncovers the entangled vernacular cultures of capitalist modernity mass consumption and media spectatorship in two understudied postcolonial Asian cities across three crucial historical moments Juxtaposing Manila and Singapore it analyzes print and audiovisual representations of popular commercial and leisure spaces during the colonial occupation in the 1930s national development in the 1960s and neoliberal globalization in the 2000s Engaging with the work of creators including Nick Joaquin Kevin Kwan and P Ramlee it discusses figures of female shoppers in 1930s Manila languid expatriates in 1930s Singapore street hawkers in 1960s Singapore youthful activists in 1960s Manila call center agents in 2000s Manila and super rich investors in 2000s Singapore Looking at the historical transformation of Calle Escolta Avenida Rizal Raffles Place and Orchard Road it focuses on Crystal Arcade the Manila Carnival the Great World and New World Amusement Parks and Change Alley all of which had once captivated the public imagination but have since vanished from the cityscape Instead of treating capitalism media and modernity as overarching systems or processes the book examines how their configurations and experiences are contingent variable pluralistic and archipelagic Diverging from critical theories and cultural studies that see consumerism and spectatorship as sources of alienation docility and fantasy it explores how they create new possibilities for agency collectivity and resistance Singapore Michael D. Barr, 2018-12-13 Singapore gained independence in 1965 a city state in a world of nation states Yet its long and complex history reaches much farther back Blending modernity and tradition ideologies and ethnicities a peculiar set of factors make Singapore what it is today In this thematic study of the island nation Michael D Barr proposes a new approach to understand this development From the pre colonial period through to the modern day he traces the idea the politics and the geography of Singapore over five centuries of rich history In doing so he rejects the official narrative of the so called Singapore Story Drawing on in depth archival work and oral histories Singapore A Modern History is a work both for students of the country s history and politics but also for any reader seeking to engage with this enigmatic and vastly successful nation Prostitution, Race, and Politics Philippa Levine,2003

History Since 1600 Andrew N. Porter,2002 The twentieth century witnessed an unprecedented growth of research and publication on the history of Britain s empire the Commonwealth and British expansion overseas Historical work by area specialists has transformed the state of knowledge concerning colonial North America India the Caribbean sub Saharan Africa South and South East Asia the Pacific and Australasia Much has been written about Britain s interests and presence in areas and societies never formally subjected to British rule such as Latin America and the Middle and Far East Most recently a preoccupation with the reciprocal impact of overseas expansion and colonial possessions on Britain itself has produced a rapidly growing historiography Publication on this scale has made it virtually impossible for anyone either to keep track of the results or to follow up particular interests Britain s overseas history has never been well supplied with comprehensive bibliographical aids and despite extensive public interest in the subject the position has steadily worsened Following the recent Oxford History of the British Empire this volume is therefore designed to provide a general source of reference and bibliographical guidance at once wide ranging up to date and accessible Journal of Southeast Asian Architecture ,1997

of social and symbolic conflict As places of encounter between different classes ethnic groups and lifestyles cities play the role of powerful integrators yet on the other hand urban contexts are the ideal setting for marginalization and violence The struggle over control of urban spaces is an ambivalent mode of sociation while producing themselves groups produce exclusive spaces and then in turn use the boundaries they have created to define themselves This volume presents major
