Contested Urban Spaces Ulrike Capdepón, Sarah Dornhof, 2022-02-09 This book takes the urban space as a starting point for thinking about practices actors narratives and imaginations within articulations of memory The social protests and mobilizations against colonial statues are examples of how past injustice and violence keep on shaping debates in the present Following an interdisciplinary approach the contributions to this book focus on the in-visibility and affective power of monuments and traces through political activist and artistic contestations in different geographical settings They show that memories are shaped in contact zones most often in conflict and within hierarchical social relations The notion of decentered memory shifts the perspective to relationships between imperial centers and margins remembrance and erasure nationalistic tendencies and migration This plurality of connections emerges around unfinished histories of violence and resistance that are reflected in monuments and traces

The Oxford Handbook of Ethics and Art James Harold, 2023 Art has not always had the same salience in philosophical discussions of ethics that many other elements of our lives have There are well defined areas of applied ethics corresponding to nature business health care war punishment animals and more but there is no recognized research program in applied ethics of the arts or art ethics Art often seems to belong to its own sphere of value separate from morality The first questions we ask about art are usually not about its moral rightness or virtue but about its beauty or originality However it is impossible to do any serious thinking about the arts without engaging in ethical questions

Contested Antiquity Esther Solomon, 2021-02-02 While the archaeological legacies of Greece and Cyprus are often considered to represent some of the highest values of Western civilization democracy progress aesthetic harmony and rationalism this much adored and heavily touristed heritage can quickly become the stage for clashes over identity and memory In Contested Antiquity Esther Solomon curates explorations of how those who safeguard cultural heritage are confronted with the best ways to represent this heritage responsibly How should visitors be introduced to an ancient Byzantine fortification that still holds the grim reminders of the cruel prison it was used as until the 1980s How can foreign archaeological institutes engage with another nation's heritage in a meaningful way What role do locals have in determining what is sacred and can this sense of the sacred extend beyond buildings to the surrounding land Together the essays featured in Contested Antiquity offer fresh insights into the ways ancient heritage is negotiated for modern times
