Prison Inmates Edward Zamble, Frank J. Porporino, 2013-11-11 This book is the report of a collaborative effort Frank Porporino and I arrived at the starting point for our work together by very different routes Originally trained as an experimental psychologist I had become increasingly restive within the confines of the laboratory and spent a sabbatical year in the equivalent of a clinical internship I then spent some time as a part time consultant in a local penitentiary Most of my time in the institution was spent with inmates with a variety of problems probably about 50 individuals over the course of a year Although this was far fewer than a full time psychologist in the system might encounter it served as a quick cram course on problem prisoners and prisoner problems Very quickly my stereotypes about convicts were shown to be virtually useless I learned that the criminal classes included all levels of society and that the behavior of prisoners was the same as that of other human beings in a difficult environment
