The Control of Drugs and Drug Users Ross Coomber,1997-11-01 Reviews important aspects of past current drug control policies in Britain America

The Control of Drugs and Drug Users Ross Coomber,2020-07-26 Informed debate on how why or even if drugs and those that use them should be controlled needs an insight into the background of such controls how effective they have been and what reasonable alternatives there may be This book seeks to provide such an insight Reviewing important aspects of past and current drug control policies in Britain and America the international compliment of expert contributors seek to explore the rationality of the reasoning which produced the initial controls the continuing relevance of those currently employed and provide alternative scenarios for future policy

The Role of the Media in Criminal Justice Policy Natalia Antolak-Saper,2022-09-09 This book provides a socio legal examination of the media s influence on the development and implementation of criminal justice policy This impact is often assumed And especially in the wake of high profile crimes the press is routinely observed calling for sentences to be harsher and for governments to be tougher on crime But how do we know that there is a connection To answer this question the book draws on a case study of the media reporting of the rape and murder of Jill Meagher in Melbourne Australia as well as other well known cases including those of James Bulger Sarah Payne Stephen Lawrence and Michael Brown among others Deploying a socio legal framework to examine how the media s often powerful and emotive narratives play a crucial role in the development and implementation of law the book provides a deep and critical reflection on its influence The book concludes with a number of suggestions for media reform both to moderate the media s influence and to incorporate a broader range of viewpoints This multi disciplinary book will appeal to scholars and students in sociolegal studies criminology and criminal law as well as those working in relevant areas in sociology and media studies
