those in the Global North to produce a series of binaries it prioritises expanding our frames of reference for studying creator labour. It does so by examining creator cultures in India, Turkey, Brazil, Chile, Pakistan, Nigeria, Hong Kong, and China through approaches from media communication and cultural studies as well as internet platform and creator studies. Rich with grounded subjective experiences of Global South creators, this collection is essential reading for students and academics of media communication and cultural studies and appeals to anyone interested in understanding the complex relationship between nation states, social media platforms, and creators.
