Contexts Of Bakhtin:

The Contexts of Bakhtin David G. Shepherd, 1998 The fourteen essays collected in this volume share a concern with the contexts to which we need to refer in order to understand not only the origins but also the potential of Mikhail Bakhtin's thought Bakhtin in Contexts Amy Mandelker, 1995-11-22 The Russian critic M M Bakhtin has recently become a major

figure in contemporary theory beyond his traditional influence in Slavic literary studies Bakhtin in Contexts explores the revolutionary impact Bakhtin's ideas have carried in contemporary discussion of language art culture and social science in recent years The contributors represent a broad range of disciplines in the humanities and social sciences epitomizing the views of Russian and American specialists in those fields Bakhtin often referred to as the human sciences The diversity of perspective and flexibility of approach make this a unique contribution to Bakhtin studies and to the ongoing dialogue between Western and Russian theorists Critical and Creative Research Methodologies in Social Work Lia

Bryant, 2016-03-09 Social work research is concerned with complex social issues closely connected to communities of people who are marginalized and oppressed This volume develops critical and creative research methodologies that place questions of social justice at their centre and take innovative approaches to collecting analysing interpreting and presenting research data The first section of the book examines textual data produced from an array of methodologies focused on the spoken and or written word These approaches allow those who are often silenced to speak by providing space and time to capture memory and meanings that may not come to light in a time driven structured research method like an interview or a questionnaire The second section of the book discusses visual methods including an examination of historical artefacts like photographs and objects and participant engagement with art specifically clay sculpture and drawings Both sets of methods examine the concept of time that is how we understand time as in our past memories how we develop relationships and knowledge over time These creative and critical methods provide new insights into ways of undertaking social research in social work which captures the complexity of social experiences problems and meanings that are more often than not embedded in time and place Restoring the Human Context to Literary and Performance Studies Howard

Mancing, Jennifer Marston William, 2022-01-28 Restoring the Human Context to Literary and Performance Studies argues that much of contemporary literary theory is still predicated at least implicitly on outdated linguistic and psychological models such as post structuralism psychoanalysis and behaviorism which significantly contradict current dominant scientific views By contrast this monograph promotes an alternative paradigm for literary studies namely Contextualism and in so doing highlights the similarities and differences among the sometimes conflicting contemporary cognitive approaches to literature and performance arguing not in favor of one over the other but for Contextualism as their common ground

Exploring the Contexts of Information Behaviour Thomas D. Wilson, David K. Allen, 1999 Cracking Morse Code Adrian Page, 2000 Examining television drama from a semiotic viewpoint Cracking Morse Code explains the need to develop semiotic theory further in order to acknowledge all the sign systems that practitioners have exploited in successful television drama

The Contexts of Aleksandr Sergeevich Pushkin Peter I. Barta, Ulrich Goebel, 1988 A collection of essays in English and Russian presented at the 1987 symposium commemorating the 150th anniversary of Pushkin's death

Dialogue Not Dogma Raj Nadella, 2011-03-24 Nadella examines the strands of Luke's narrative showing that the many voices in the text should be celebrated as a unique feature of Luke's writing Lukan scholars offer varying responses to the issue of divergent viewpoints in the gospel regarding the identity of Jesus wealth women and the emphasis on doing vis a vis hearing Many forms of criticism attempt to explain or harmonize these apparent contradictions Conversely Raj Nadella argues that there is no dominant viewpoint in Luke and that the divergence in viewpoints is a unique literary feature to be celebrated rather than a problem to be solved Nadella interprets selected Lukan passages in light of Bakhtinian concepts such as dialogism loophole and exotopy to show that the disparate perspectives and interplay between them display Luke's superior literary skills rather than his inability to produce a coherent work Luke emerges as a work akin to Dostoevsky's Brothers Karamazov that accommodates competing views on several issues and allows them to enter into an unfinalizable dialogue as equal partners

Formerly the Journal for the Study of the New Testament Supplement this is a book series that explores the many aspects of New Testament study including historical perspectives social scientific and literary theory and theological cultural and contextual approaches The Early Christianity in Context series a part of JSNTS examines the birth and development of early Christianity up to the end of the third century CE The series places Christianity in its social cultural political and economic context European Seminar on Christian Origins and Journal for the Study of the Historical Jesus Supplement are also part of JSNTS

Social Contexts of Early Development and Education Robert Stuart Reifel, 1995

Introducing Bakhtin Sue Vice, 1997 The Russian critic and theorist Mikhail Bakhtin is once again in favor his influence spreading across many discourses including literature film cultural and gender studies This book provides the most comprehensive introduction to Bakhtin's central concepts and terms Sue Vice illustrates what is meant by such ideas as carnival the grotesque body dialogism and heteroglossia These concepts are then placed in a contemporary context by drawing out the implications of Bakhtin's writings for current issues such as feminism and sexuality Vice's examples are always practically based on specific texts such as the film Thelma and Louise Helen Zahavi's Dirty Weekend and James Kelman's How late it was how late

From Monologue to Dialogue Edwin Jurriëns, 2009-01-01 From Monologue to Dialogue Radio and Reform in Indonesia analyses how radio journalism since the late 1990s has been shaped by and contributed to Reformasi or the ambition of democratizing Indonesian politics economy and society The book examines ideas and practices such as independent journalism peace journalism meta journalism virtual interactivity talk back radio and community radio which have all been designed to renew audience interest in media and societal affairs It pays special attention to radio programmes that enable hosts experts listeners and other participants to discuss and negotiate the very rules and boundaries of Indonesia's newly acquired media freedom The author argues that these contemporary programmes provide dialogic alternatives to the official New Order discourse dominated by monologism Bakhtin and cultural theory Ken Hirschkop, David Shepherd, 2024-06-04 An important collection of essays which treats Bakhtin as a provocative theorist whose work must be tested explored and compared with the work of others Contributors assess Bakhtin's contribution to difficult issues of colonialism feminism reception theory and theories of the body amongst others New articles explore the origins previously unacknowledged of Bakhtin's theory of language and provide a vivid account of the dramatic scandal surrounding Bakhtin's thesis on Rabelais Contains dramatic new material drawn from post perestroika sources which demythologizes the image of this important writer A new bibliographical essay and introduction bring the English language reader up to date with the progress of Bakhtin studies in Russia Text and Context Claire J. Kramsch, Sally McConnell-Ginet, 1992 The papers in this volume stemming from the Fourth Annual conference of the Consortium for Language Teaching and Learning explore the relationships between form and meaning in language use Thinking Space Mike Crang, Nigel Thrift, 2002-09-11 Thinking Space looks at a range of social theorists and asks what role space plays in their work what difference if any it makes to their concepts and what difference such an appreciation makes to the way we might think about space Bakhtin Valerie Z. Nollan, 2004 The early work of Mikhail Bakhtin is notable for its emphasis on questions in ethics and philosophy Focusing on these early writings though also informed by Bakhtin's later works of the early 1970s the authors in this volume explore the human and prosaic dimensions of ethical and moral dilemmas whether in the philosophical concerns of the Young Hegelians the iconography and implicit doctrine of Christian redemption in Dostoevsky's Crime and Punishment in testimonial accounts of political martyrs in Latin America or in the nationalist features of Russian Village Prose Incorporating a variety of disciplinary backgrounds into their essays including theater arts philosophy history women's studies Latin American literature and Russian literature the authors take Bakhtin's ethics as articulated in his writings of 1919 1929 and extend them into areas of thought that themselves enter into fruitful dialogue with his theoretical positions endeavoring at all times to remain cognizant of both Russian and Western views of Bakhtin The essayists' interactions attest to the productivity of any thoughtful encounter with Bakhtin's work and to the transformational nature of his work's impact on the myriad disciplines that it affects Bakhtin's thought exerted a profound systemic influence on many areas of knowledge as they have been configured in the twentieth century and as this volume amply demonstrates promises to do the same for the twenty first Benjamin & Bakhtin John Docker, Subhash Jaireth, 2003 Concise Encyclopedia of Pragmatics Jacob Mey, 1998 Hardbound Among the recent developments in the language sciences the coming of age of the field of pragmatics and its official inauguration in the mid seventies stand out as some of the most significant ones The present work endeavours to sum up the development of the youngest offspring of linguistics in a number of conscientiously chosen well elaborated concepts that may be said to characterize both the discipline and its most famous practitioners The increasingly complex notions and devices developed by linguists to cope with the description of naturally occurring language phenomena have been joined with techniques and approaches due to the socially oriented schools of thought that see language first of all as a means of communication between human users Based on the highly acclaimed and award winning Encyclopedia of Language and Linguistics this volume provides a collection of articles throughout which the vast scope of the field of pra Mikhail Bakhtin and the Epistemology of Discourse ,2023-01-16 Dialogue With Bakhtin on Second and Foreign Language Learning Joan Kelly Hall,Gergana Vitanova,Ludmila A. Marchenkova,2004-12-13 This volume is the first to explore links between the Russian linguist Mikhail Bakhtin s theoretical insights about language and practical concerns with second and foreign language learning and teaching Situated within a strong conceptual framework and drawing from a rich empirical base it reflects recent scholarship in applied linguistics that has begun to move away from formalist views of language as universal autonomous linguistic systems and toward an understanding of language as dynamic collections of cultural resources According to Bakhtin the study of language is concerned with the dialogue existing between linguistic elements and the uses to which they are put in response to the conditions of the moment Such a view of language has significant implications for current understandings of second and foreign language learning The contributors draw on some of Bakhtin s more significant concepts such as dialogue utterance heteroglossia voice and addressivity to examine real world contexts of language learning The chapters address a range of contexts including elementary and university level English as a second language and foreign language classrooms and adult learning situations outside the formal classroom The text is arranged in two parts Part I Contexts of Language Learning and Teaching contains seven chapters that report on investigations into specific contexts of language learning and teaching The chapters in Part II Implications for Theory and Practice present broader discussions on second and foreign language learning using Bakhtin s ideas as a springboard for thinking This is a groundbreaking volume for scholars in applied linguistics language education and language studies with an interest in second and foreign language learning for teacher educators and for teachers of languages from elementary to university levels It is highly relevant as a text for graduate level courses in applied linguistics and second and foreign language education The Structure of Texts Udo Fries,1987
