Contextual Media Multimedia And Interpretation:

Contextual media : multimedia and interpretation Edward Barrett,1995 Contextual Media expands upon the theme of social construction of knowledge developed in Edward Barrett s three previous volumes The thirteen contributions focus on specific applications of multimedia technology to cultural institutions such as museums universities or corporate environments they analyze narrative and other navigational structures in various interactive multimedia systems and make recommendations for the design of future systems based on these analyses and they present innovative uses of multimedia that break out of the confines of a single terminal to develop interactive transformational environments

Contextual Media Edward Barrett,Marie Redmond,1997 On multimedia technology Mind Technologies Raymond George Siemens,David Moorman,2006 Mind Technologies is the first volume to broadly document the internationally significant work of the Canadian academic community in the area of humanities computing Edited by Raymond Siemens and David Moorman Mind Technologies features contributions from those whose agencies provide research funding for such endeavours from those whose institutions foster work in the area and from innovative researchers whose work both reflects and has shaped inquiry into this rapidly growing field

Considering Children's Literature Andrea Schwenke Wyle,Teya Rosenberg,2008-02-21 The study of children s literature is not just about children and the books said to be for them it is also about the societies and cultures from which the literature comes and it is about the assumptions and ideas we hold about children and childhood For adults reading children s literature is ultimately both an act of nostalgia and of self examination When we consider children s literature we must include ourselves in the equation What kinds of readers are we How do we relate to books and stories To what degree should we impose our experience upon others Reading children s literature actively can lead to all kinds of remarkable and sometimes unsettling revelations about ourselves and our society from the Introduction Considering Children s Literature is a collection of previously published essays on a variety of topics that inform the study of children s literature Exploring issues such as censorship the canon the meanings of fairy tales and the adaptation of children s literature into film the essays in this anthology are as diverse as they are illuminating Along with authors like Natalie Babbitt and Margaret Mahy teachers scholars and publishers of children s books are also contributors Accessible and comprehensive this book will appeal to anyone interested in children s literature

Networks of Design Jonathan Glynne,Fiona Hackney,Minton, Viv,2010-06 Networks of Design maps a new methodological territory in design studies conceived as a field of interdisciplinary inquiry and practice informed by a range of responses to actor network theory It brings together a rich body of current work by researchers in the social sciences technology material culture cultural geography information technology and systems design and design theory and history This collection will be invaluable to students and researchers in many areas of design studies and to design practitioners receptive to new and challenging notions of what constitutes the design process Over ninety essays are thematically organised to address five aspects of the expanded notions of mediation agency and collaboration posited by network theory Ideas Things Technology Texts and People The collection also includes an important new essay on rethinking the concept of design by Bruno Latour one of the most influential figures in the philosophy and sociology of science and technology and a pioneer of actor network theory and essays deriving from forum discussions involving designers and designer makers responsive to actor network theory Rather than an anthology of previously published essays Networks of Design presents work in progress on design theory and its applications It is the outcome of a live and vigorous debate on the possibilities and actualities offered by actor network led conceptualisations of the relationships and processes constituting design All the essays many collaborative derive from papers presented at the international conference of the Design History Society held at University College Falmouth UK in the Autumn of 2008

Interactive Digital Narrative Hartmut Koenitz, Gabriele Ferri, Mads Haahr, Diğdem Sezen, Tonguç İbrahim Sezen, 2015-04-10 The book is concerned with narrative in digital media that changes according to user input Interactive Digital Narrative IDN It provides a broad overview of current issues and future directions in this multi disciplinary field that includes humanities based and computational perspectives It assembles the voices of leading researchers and practitioners like Janet Murray Marie Laure Ryan Scott Rettberg and Martin Rieser In three sections it covers history theoretical perspectives and varieties of practice including narrative game design with a special focus on changes in the power relationship between audience and author enabled by interactivity After discussing the historical development of diverse forms the book presents theoretical standpoints including a semiotic perspective a proposal for a specific theoretical framework and an inquiry into the role of artificial intelligence Finally it analyses varieties of current practice from digital poetry to location based applications artistic experiments and expanded remakes of older narrative game titles

Leveraging Mobile Media Valerie Feldmann, 2006-03-30 Mobile communications and next generation wireless networks emerge as new distribution channels for the media This development offers exciting new opportunities for media companies the mobile communication system creates new usage contexts for media content and services the social use of mobile communications suggests that identity representation in social networks impulsive access to trusted media brands and micro coordination emerge as new sources of value creation in the media industries In the light of this background this book takes two different viewpoints on the development of mobile media from a competitive strategy point of view it analyzes the extension of cross media strategies and the emergence of cross network strategies from a public policy point of view it develops demands and requirements for an innovation policy that fosters innovation in mobile media markets
