The Contributions of the Social Sciences to Educational Policy and Practice, 1965-1985 Jane

Hannaway, Marla E. Lockhead, 1986 Handbook of Education Policy Research Lora Cohen-Vogel, Peter Youngs, Janelle Scott, 2025-07-17 The second edition of the Handbook of Education Policy Research the largest volume published in AERA's history addresses a variety of policy and contextual issues in early childhood K 12 and postsecondary education that have received extensive empirical attention during the past 15 years With the pandemic and social turmoil as a backdrop the editors build on the breadth and depth of the first edition while expanding the scope of the project to include subjects methods theories and analyses that have contributed powerfully to the study of education policy and politics in the 2010s and 2020s The field has become more comprehensive and inclusive and the authors represent a diversity of racial ethnic and gender identities and intellectual and disciplinary orientations Most chapters come from multiple authors reflecting the multi sourced development of research in education policy since the first volume was published This compilation consists of 70 chapters and nine commentaries that map past present and future directions of the field and richly attend to critical issues of interest to students researchers policy makers and practitioners Annals of the American Academy of Political and Social Science, 1928 Equity in Secondary Schools Massachusetts. Department of Education. Office of Educational Equity, 1988

The Annals of the American Academy of Political and Social Science American Academy of Political and Social Science, 1929 Social Studies in the New Education Policy Era Paul G. Fitchett, Kevin W. Meuwissen, 2018-01-19 Social Studies in the New Education Policy Era is a series of compelling open ended education policy dialogues among various social studies scholars and stakeholders By facilitating conversations about the relationships among policy practice and research in social studies education this collection illuminates various positions some similar some divergent on contested issues in the field from the effects of standardized curriculum and assessment mandates on K 12 teaching to the appropriate roles of social studies educators as public policy advocates Chapter authors bring diverse professional experiences to the questions at hand offering readers multiple perspectives from which to delve into well informed discussions about social studies education in past present and future policy contexts Collectively their commentaries aim to inspire challenge and ultimately strengthen readers beliefs about the place of social studies in present and future education policy environments
