Bestselling and award winning author Mason Deaver's adult romance debut follows a journalist in a dead end job who agrees to teach his disastrous blind date how to be a better boyfriend. Readers will delight in this sweet and steamy queer romance with trans representation. Eli Francis is stuck. Stuck in an assistant position at the online magazine Vent when he should be a writer. Stuck with a boss who dangles a promotion but would rather he just fetch the coffee. Stuck working alongside the ex who has had no trouble moving up at work or moving on. When Eli's roommates push him to date so he can get over his ex once and for all they set him up with Peter Park. Tall, handsome and unbelievably awkward. The date is a complete disaster and further proof to Eli that love isn't for him. But when his boss overhears Eli recounting the catastrophic night he suggests teaching Peter to be a better boyfriend through a series of simulated dates so he can write an article about it. But Eli has other ideas. Eli plays along, pretending to write the article while secretly interviewing Peter about growing up queer in the South and coming of age dating wise in adulthood. Eli hopes writing this sort of piece will finally get him the promotion he deserves. And in exchange he will teach Peter how to be a better boyfriend. But the more time Eli spends with Peter the closer they become and the lines between what's real and what's fake begin to blur. Before long Eli is forced to face his greatest fears to become the writer he wants to be and secure the love he's always needed.
