Lesbian Film Guide Alison Darren, 2000-02-17 This A Z guide to lesbians and lesbianism in the movies contains reviews gossip facts and commentary on over 200 films including specifically lesbian films such as Go Fish and Desert Hearts as well as films with a lesbian character or theme like The Children s Hour and The Hunger John Waters FAQ Dale Sherman, 2019-04-15 For more than 50 years John Waters has been staging a coup against the good taste of the American public From the ultimate gross out in Pink Flamingos to the amazing general audience rating of his biggest hit Hairspray Waters has been subverting viewers expectations with comedies that stretch past the boundaries of even today s jaded audiences A provocateur of bad taste in a glorious way Waters started out as an outsider with a camera and a small circle of fellow delinquents In tearing down icons of the silver screen Waters would create his own that are used still by others in movies and television And that s only part of the tale John Waters FAQ looks at how a nice boy from the right side of the tracks would end up becoming a demon of society and the influences that drove his ambition in moviemaking Also featured are biographical information of the Dreamlanders the actors and crew members who would join Waters on his adventures in film land over the years including Waters s best remembered find Divine Beyond chapters dedicated to the making of each of his films from Hag in a Black Leather Jacket to his most recent A Dirty Shame there are those covering his career as a writer and artist Also reviewed are his acting career in other people s television shows and movies over the years Water s interest in music and projects that never were to be John Waters FAQ covers it all in the career of a man who started out with a dream of becoming an underground filmmaker and became so much more Film and Ethics Jacqui Miller, 2014-08-26 This book forms part of the multi disciplinary Studies in Ethics Series from Liverpool Hope University It explores the slipperiness of ethics as a concept and demonstrates the multiplicity of intellectual inquiry within contemporary Film Studies At first glance ethics is not necessarily a subject conventionally associated with film Film is often regarded as a form of lowbrow popular culture either offering bland entertainment or deliberately setting out to shock or more cynically generate box office revenue through gratuitous inclusion of sex and violence Certainly there have always been a minority of films based on the stereotypically ethical subject of religion but these have often generated the most controversy from the studio system decree that it was blasphemous to represent the corporeal body of Christ to the furore surrounding Martin Scorsese s The Last Temptation of Christ 1988 This book shows that from the silent era to the present day film has been inherently concerned with ethical issues In this light the definition of ethics that informs the volume and is taken as the starting point of each of the chapters is the notion of personal or institutional motivation most usually because a character or industry figure makes a decision or choice based on their own moral or ethical code Once this is defined the ethical dimension to films is immediately evident This book takes as its central theme the difficulty of decisions refracted through personal ethical codes and thus recognises that what counts as ethics or morality is always subjective Some of the chapters explore films which take conventionally good ethical standpoints others investigate why bad decisions were made at least one explores the celebration of practices invoking popular disgust but all the contributions study ethical decisions within film that represent the strongly felt convictions of those involved and moreover address aspects of filmmaking which force the spectator to be an active and reciprocal participant in the creation of meaning thus implicitly acknowledging that ethics are subjective and in perpetual flux rather than fixed objective truths

John Waters James Egan,2011-09-13 The films of John Waters b 1946 are some of the most powerful send ups of conventional film forms and expectations since Luis Bu uel and Salvador Dali s Un Chien Andalou In attempting to reinvigorate the experience of movie going with his shock comedy Waters has been willing to take the chance of offending nearly everyone His characters have great dignity and resourcefulness taking what s different or unacceptable or grotesque about themselves heightening it and turning it into a handmade personal style The interviews collected here span Waters s career from 1965 to 2010 and include a new one exclusive to this edition Waters began making films in his hometown of Baltimore in 1964 Demonstrating an innate talent at capturing the hideous and crude and elevating it to art he reached international acclaim with his outrageous shock comedy Pink Flamingos This landmark film redefined cinema and became a cult classic Appearing in this and many of Waters s early films his star Divine would consistently challenge gender definitions With Polyester Waters entered the mainstream The film starred Divine as an unhappy housewife who romances a former teen idol played by Tab Hunter Waters s commercial breakthrough Hairspray told the story of Baltimore s televised sock hop program The Corny Collins Show and how one brave girl Ricki Lake used her platform as a dancer to end segregation in her town From Serial Mom and Pecker to Cecil B Demented Waters continued to infiltrate the mainstream with his unique approach to filmmaking As a visual artist he was given a retrospective at the New Museum of Contemporary Art in 2004 which was shown at galleries around the world

Desperate Living John Waters,2025-05-27 A grotesque and hilarious satire about the American dream suburban living and the corrupting influence of power set in a world that could only have sprung from the unhinged and brilliant mind of John Waters On the verge of a suburban mental health crisis frazzled and wildly unstable housewife Peggy immortalized by Mink Stole on screen runs away from home with her maid and partner in crime Grizelda played with spectacular gumption by the sizzling Jean Hill only to end up in Mortville a shantytown filled with society s rejects Mortville is run by the evil Queen Carlotta who parades through the cardboard streets taunting and terrorizing her subjects John Waters wild and visionary fable lampoons everything from the staid conservatism of the American dream to race and class relations The New York Times ranked Desperate Living at the highest peak atop John Waters trash heap of a filmography High praise indeed
