Tclc Cumulative Title Index ,2008-05-21      Twentieth-Century Literary Criticism Annual Cumulative Title Index Gale Group,2003-05      Secondary Moderns Brett Levinson,1996 Secondary Moderns examines Lezama Lima s analyses of Latin American history and culture The study begins by carefully demonstrating how Lezama breaks with the modern Latin American intellectual tradition that has explored the question of Latin American in terms of an identity politics and moves on to a close reading of the theories of aesthetics representation resistance criticism death religion and ethics that Lezama puts forth via his notion of the American expression The work concludes by analyzing Lezama s politics of affirmation by scrutinizing his writings on Cuba and the Cuban Revolution Secondary Moderns represents a thorough analysis of Lezama s cultural project Latin American twentieth century thought and the complex intersection of Latin American studies and the post Heideggerian philosophical tradition Refuting labels that have too hastily been attached to Lezama s difficult works those works have been dubbed elitist or transcendentalist the text strives to establish Lezama as one of the great thinkers of historicity in the modern age For while many critics have suggested that Latin American modernity is born via a reading and rewriting of Western discourses Lezama s American expression is the site where this theory is most radically put into practice The practice moreover permits one to understand not only Latin American cultural theory but Western thought itself indeed Lezama s aberrant reading of the West by its very aberrant character reveals aspects of the Western tradition never before explored BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

Proceedings - Pacific Northwest Council on Foreign Languages ,1978 Contains the proceedings of the 26th 30th annual meeting      Founders of the Future Óscar Iván Useche,2022-03-18 In this ambitious new interdisciplinary study Useche proposes the metaphor of the social foundry to parse how industrialization informed and shaped cultural and national discourses in late nineteenth and early twentieth century Spain Across a variety of texts Spanish writers scientists educators and politicians appropriated the new economies of industrial production particularly its emphasis on the human capacity to transform reality through energy and work to produce new conceptual frameworks that changed their vision of the future

These influences soon appeared in plans to enhance the nation's productivity justify systems of class stratification and labor exploitation or suggest state organizational improvements This fresh look at canonical writers such as Emilia Pardo Baz n Concha Espina Benito P rez Gald s Vicente Blasco Ib ez and Jos Echegaray as well as lesser known authors offers close readings of their work as it reflected the complexity of Spain's process of modernization

A New History of Iberian Feminisms Silvia Bermudez, Roberta Johnson, 2018-02-05 A New History of Iberian Feminisms is both a chronological history and an analytical discussion of feminist thought in the Iberian Peninsula including Portugal and the territories of Spain the Basque Provinces Catalonia and Galicia from the eighteenth century to the present day The Iberian Peninsula encompasses a dynamic and fraught history of feminism that had to contend with entrenched tradition and a dominant Catholic Church Editors Silvia Berm dez and Roberta Johnson and their contributors reveal the long and historical struggles of women living within various parts of the Iberian Peninsula to achieve full citizenship A New History of Iberian Feminisms comprises a great deal of new scholarship including nineteenth century essays written by women on the topic of equality By addressing these lost texts of feminist thought Berm dez Johnson and their contributors reveal that female equality considered a dormant topic in the early nineteenth century was very much part of the political conversation and helped to launch the new feminist wave in the second half of the century

Spain and the Western Tradition Otis Howard Green, 1963 The late Renaissance in Spain was a period of progressive military diplomatic and social defeat and the spirit of the Spaniards moving from confidence to doubt reflected a growing disillusion with grandeur After an examination of optimism and pessimism in terms of the baroque period Professor Green discusses desenga o disillusion as a related and prevalent factor In its positive aspect disillusion was a form of wisdom that the Stoic Sapiens who was fully aware of what constituted the supreme good and was enticed by nothing else The factors are apparent in the Spanish attitude toward death When he writes in seriousness the Spaniard of the baroque period recognises death the obedient executor of the will of a just and merciful God Thus the concept of the Spanish seventeenth century as one of total despair collapses in the presence of the evidence adduced Far removed from attitudes of despondency the originality of Spain's literary accomplishments reached full tide in the baroque period a literary age characterized by the growth of a new sophistication The use of brilliant metaphor of allegory of double and triple meanings of words to form bridges of intellectual association is the result of a consistent growth that developed inevitably from the Renaissance style Publisher's description
