Masters of the "Humdrum" Mystery Curtis Evans, 2014-01-10 In 1972 in an attempt to elevate the stature of the crime novel influential crime writer and critic Julian Symons cast numerous Golden Age detective fiction writers into literary perdition as Humdrums condemning their focus on puzzle plots over stylish writing and explorations of character setting and theme This volume explores the works of three prominent British Humdrums Cecil John Charles Street Freeman Wills Crofts and Alfred Walter Stewart revealing their work to be more complex as puzzles and as social documents than Symons allowed By championing the intrinsic merit of these mystery writers the study demonstrates that reintegrating the Humdrums into mystery genre studies provides a fuller understanding of the Golden Age of detective fiction and its aftermath

Modes of the Fantastic Robert A. Latham, Robert A. Collins, 1995-09-26 This book gathers 25 essays originally presented at the Twelfth Annual International Conference on the Fantastic in the Arts Its animating focus is the politics of fantasy considered both as a formal genre and a mode of apprehension The opening essay by Brian Attebery sets the agenda for the book in its forthright rebuttal of fantasy's critics who see it as either politically naive or even pernicious rather Attebery argues fantasy is a radical mode of perception that contests every form of political orthodoxy The book is divided into six large sections The first broadly addresses the social politics of fantasy with three essays showing how fantastic literature undermines the assumptions of realism including such official forms as Socialist Realism The second section on technique focuses on the formal strategies of fantastic texts with three essays analyzing collage and two the grotesque Part three offers six perspectives on fantasy s implications for issues of race and gender Parts four and five on nature and religion provide eight views of how fantasy affects apprehension of the natural and the supernatural Finally the sixth section contains three essays assessing the politics of intertextuality
