Reading in the Early Years Handbook Robin Campbell, 1995

Reading in the Early Years Handbook is a reference text covering all aspects of young children learning to read. It deals with a comprehensive list of topics ranging from apprenticeship approach to nursery rhymes to whole language. The text also deals with organizational issues such as classroom management and time for literacy. In all some sixty topics are presented alphabetically and each of these topics is followed by suggestions for further reading. Additionally several topics have in the classroom sections where examples from the classroom are used to highlight the particular issues. The comprehensive material is presented in a handbook format to enable easy access for readers.

The Teacher's Handbook for the Preparation of Lessons, Etc Robert Jones Griffiths, 1872

Real-World Writers: A Handbook for Teaching Writing with 7-11 Year Olds Ross Young, Felicity Ferguson, 2020-05-28

Real World Writers shows teachers how they can teach their pupils to write well and with pleasure, purpose and power. It demonstrates how classrooms can be transformed into genuine communities of writers where talking, reading, writing and sharing give children confidence, motivation and a sense of the relevance writing has to their own lives and learning. Based on their practical experience and what research says is the most effective practice, the authors share detailed guidance on how teachers can provide writing study lessons drawing on what real writers do and how to teach grammar effectively. They also share a variety of authentic class writing projects with accompanying teacher notes that will encourage children to use genres appropriately, creatively and flexibly. The authors' simple yet comprehensive approach includes how to teach the processes and craft knowledge involved in creating successful and meaningful texts. This book is invaluable for all primary practitioners who wish to teach writing for real.

The Manual of Child Development, 1927

Handbook of Research on Teacher Education John P. Sikula, Association of Teacher Educators, 1996

The first edition of this text sought to provide a basis for improving the education of teachers at every level. Committed to the idea that the betterment of teacher education is essential to the improvement of schools, it provided understanding of the research so that professionals could compare, evaluate and create effective programmes.
