Developing Policies That Work:

The Development Dimension Trade, Agriculture and Development Policies Working Together OECD,2006-04-18 These conference proceedings explore why policy coherence is important how it affects global agricultural trade and whether it can help reduce poverty and hunger Development of Resources and Stabilization of Employment in the United States United States. National Resources Planning Board,1941 Local Economic and Employment Development (LEED) Better Use of Skills in the Workplace Why It Matters for Productivity and Local Jobs OECD,International Labour Organization,2017-11-02 This joint OECD ILO report provides a comparative analysis of case studies focusing on improving skills use in the workplace across eight countries The Development Dimension Integrating Human Rights into Development Donor Approaches, Experiences and Challenges OECD,2006-06-14 By giving numerous examples of practical approaches this publication shows that there are various ways for donor agencies to take human rights more systematically into account in accordance with their respective mandates modes of engagement and comparative advantage OECD Multi-level Governance Studies Rethinking Regional Development Policy-making OECD,2018-04-06 This report takes stock of discussions between academics and country practitioners on opportunities to improve the design and delivery of regional development policies in a series of seminars organised during 2017 by the OECD and the European Commission What can governments do to enhance Politics of Development Heloise Weber,2014-08-13 The Politics of Development A Survey provides an overview of the intrinsically political relations of development It brings together essays written by experts in the politics of development and covers a range of significant and topical concerns gender race indigenous development social movements religion security environmental concerns colonialism and its legacies migration the political economy of development trajectories in urbanization and the agrarian question It introduces and examines key concepts and approaches which have underpinned development as well as the struggles it has engendered historically and in contemporary contexts This volume provides critical insights into the global politics of development and offers alternative analytical frameworks for understanding the relationships around development and inequalities The Politics of Development A Survey is organized in an accessible manner catering to a wide audience ranging from undergraduates at University level to practitioners and Non Governmental Organizations NGOs engaged in advocacy as well as practical political aspects and provides introductions to key issues and themes around contemporary challenges and opportunities in development The title also includes an A Z Glossary covering key terms organizations concepts and actors in the politics of development Economic Development of the United States Isaac Lippincott,1927 The White House Conference on Balanced National Growth & Economic Development: Workshop reports ,1978 Globalisation, Poverty and Conflict Max Spoor,2005-12-29 Is development pass Is it merely a by product or a trickle down effect of economic growth spurred by globalisation Will poverty simply diminish with increased global markets This state of the art critical development reader deals with these and related questions Globalisation Poverty and Conflict examines the inter relationships between globalisation poverty and conflict It complements current debates in the field of development studies and in an era in which development fatigue seems to have become more profound than ever before it brings the importance of development once again to the forefront Achieving the Millennium Development Goals by 2015 is a concrete target which many governments have agreed to work towards Whether these goals can be realised is another issue Nonetheless the Millennium Development Goals have brought more focused attention to development in the past few years and renewed debate about the relationships between the process of globalisation and widespread poverty and the emergence of violent conflicts The authors in this edited volume discuss these inter related and highly controversial topical elements of development in a number of chapters organised around three sets of issues 1 globalisation inequality and poverty 2 governance civil society and poverty and 3 resource degradation institutions and conflict The contributions represent current thinking on and practice of development policy poverty reduction the need for multi level democratic institutions and the containing and prevention of conflicts The authors confront the predominant mainstream ideas on development and propose alternatives The chapters written by a select group of scholars and development practitioners will be of direct interest to those involved in this field of social sciences and in development practice but they are composed in such a way as to remain accessible for the generally interested reader
