Developing Cultures Lawrence E. Harrison, Jerome Kagan, 2013-05-13 Developing Cultures Essays on Cultural Change is a collection of 21 expert essays on the institutions that transmit cultural values from generation to generation The essays are an outgrowth of a research project begun by Samuel Huntington and Larry Harrison in their widely discussed book Culture Matters the goal of which is guidelines for cultural change that can accelerate development in the Third World The essays in this volume cover child rearing several aspects of education the world's major religions the media political leadership and development projects The book is companion volume to Developing Cultures Case Studies 0415952808

Economics, Culture and Development Eiman O. Zein-Elabdin, 2017-09-19 This book examines the treatment of culture and development in the discipline of economics thereby filling a conspicuous gap in current literature Economics has come a long way to join the cultural turn that has swept the humanities and social sciences in the last half century This volume identifies some of the issues that major philosophies of economics must address to better grasp the cultural complexity of contemporary economies This book is an extensive survey of the place of culture and development in four theoretical economic perspectives Neoclassical Marxian Institutional and Feminist Organized in nine chapters with three appendices and a compendium of over 50 interpretations of culture by economists this book covers vast grounds from classical political economy to contemporary economic thought The literatures reviewed include original and new institutionalism cultural economics postmodern Marxism economic feminism and the current culture and development discourse on subjects such as economic growth in East Asia businesswomen entrepreneurs in West Africa and comparative development in different parts of Europe Zein Elabdin carries the project further by borrowing some of the insights from postcolonial theory to call for a more profound rethinking of the place of culture and of currently devalued cultures in economic theory This book is of great interest for those who study Economic development International relations feminist economics and Economic geography

Jews, Confucians, and Protestants Lawrence E. Harrison, 2012-12-16 Multiculturalism the belief that no culture is better or worse than any other it is merely different has come to dominate Western intellectual thought and to serve as a guide to domestic and foreign policy and development aid But what if multiculturalism itself is flawed What if some cultures are more prone to progress than others and more successful at creating the cultural capital that encourages democratic governance social justice for all and the elimination of poverty In Jews Confucians and Protestants Cultural Capital and the End of Multiculturalism Lawrence E Harrison takes the politically incorrect stand that all cultures are not created equal Analyzing the performance of 117 countries grouped by predominant religion Harrison argues for the superiority of those cultures that emphasize Jewish Confucian and Protestant values A concluding chapter outlines ways in which cultural change may substantially transform societies within a generation
