go in understanding and assessing how development projects work The author shows that often the perception of failure is not shared by those whom were intended to benefit She uses a case study of Samoan villagers introduced to cattle farming to examine the wider development process and challenge the conventional theories By drawing on people centred perspectives that give much greater weight to the role of culture in development the volume does not simply criticize development project management but suggests practical and positive ways forward encouraging spontaneous indigenous development which should be supported by projects where appropriate

Reflecting a growing awareness of the need to integrate security and development agendas in the field of conflict management the authors of this original volume focus on the case of the Pacific Islands In the process they also reveal the sociopolitical diversity cultural richness and social resilience of a little known region Their work not only offers insight into the societies discussed but also speaks to the realities of political community and state building efforts throughout the developing world M Anne Brown is research fellow at the Australian Centre for Peace and Conflict Studies at the University of Queensland She is author of Human Rights and the Borders of Suffering The Promotion of Human Rights in International Politics Contents Security and Development Conflict and Resilience in the South Pacific M A Brown Local Solutions Security and Development in Papua New Guinea M Jacka Power Gender and Security in Papua New Guinea O Sepoe Police Reform in Papua New Guinea A McLeod Development and Conflict The Struggle for Self Determination in Bougainville A Regan Development and Self Determination in New Caledonia P DeDecker Conflict and Reconciliation in New Caledonia N McLellan Self Determination and Autonomy The Meaning of Freedom in West Papua J MacLeod External Intervention The Solomon Islands Beyond RAMSI C Moore The Paradox of Multiculturalism Ethno Political Conflict in Fiji S Ratuva Elite Conflict in Vanuatu G Hassall Troubled Times Development and Economic Crisis in Nauru M Quanchi Unfinished Business Democratic Transition in Tonga L Senituli Conclusion Community Region and Partnership M A Brown

Routledge Revivals Taylor & Francis Group,2018-07-11 First published in 1989 The Pacific Islands are amongst the poorest countries of the developing world The special problems of their small size immense distance from major centres and for many very poor agricultural possibilities make development extremely difficult However recent new advances in maritime technology in a wide range of different areas present substantial new opportunities This book surveys the new developments including extended maritime boundaries giant clam farming increased exploitation of ocean minerals and new fisheries techniques and demonstrates the potential for far reaching economic and social development Smallholder

Agricultural Development in Tonga Kenneth M. Menz, 1988 Strategies for Sustainable Development J. Overton, R. Schewens, 1999-08-20 This book shows how the environments and cultures of Polynesia Micronesia and Melanesia need to be taken careful account of in fashioning sustainable development projects and strategies Case studies point up good and bad development practices Pacific Islands Pilot , 1896
