Development Dictionary A Guide To Knowledge As Power:

The Development Dictionary Wolfgang Sachs,1992 In this pioneering collection some of the world's most eminent critics of development review the key concepts of the development discourse in the post war era Each essay examines one concept from a historical and anthropological point of view and highlights its particular bias Exposing their historical obsolescence and intellectual sterility the authors call for a bidding farewell to the whole Eurocentric development idea This is urgently needed they argue in order to liberate people's minds in both North and South for bold responses to the environmental and ethical challenges now confronting humanity These essays are an invitation to experts grassroots movements and students of development to recognize the tainted glasses they put on whenever they participate in the development discourse The Development Dictionary Wolfgang Sachs,2009-11-26 In this classic collection some of the world's most eminent critics of development review the key concepts of the development discourse Each essay examines one concept from a historical and anthropological point of view highlights its particular bias and exposes its historical obsolescence and intellectual sterility The authors argue that a bidding farewell to the whole Eurocentric development idea is urgently needed in order to liberate people's minds in both North and South for bold responses to the environmental and ethical challenges now confronting humanity The combined result forms a must read invitation to experts grassroots movements and students of development to recognize the tainted glasses they put on whenever they participate in the development discourse The Development Dictionary Wolfgang Sachs,2019-09-15 The original critical guide to key concepts in development studies from some of the world's most eminent critical development scholars and practitioners Each essay in this now classic collection examines one key development concept from the environment to needs and progress to production Each concept is reviewed from a historical and anthropological point of view with particular bias and intellectual flaws being highlighted Overall the authors argue that we must bid farewell to the whole idea of Eurocentric development in order to liberate people's minds in both North and South and to mobilize for bold responses to the environmental and ethical challenges now confronting humanity The result is an indispensable resource for scholars practitioners movements and students of development which invites us to recognize the tinted glasses we put on whenever we participate in the development discourse The Development Dictionary @25 Aram Ziai,2020-05-21 Few books in the history of Development Studies have had an impact like The Development Dictionary A Guide to Knowledge as Power which was edited by Wolfgang Sachs and published by Zed Books in 1992 The Development Dictionary was crucial in establishing what has become known as the Post Development PD school This volume is devoted to the legacy of The Development Dictionary and to discussing Post Development This book originally published as a special issue of Third World Quarterly Education, Modern Development, and Indigenous Knowledge Seana McGovern,2013-06-17 This book re conceptualizes the field of international and comparative education by utilizing indigenous knowledge as a central component for altering the dominant eurocentric social science research paradigm

Examples from indigenous sources of knowledge are juxtaposed to the dominant discourses on education and modern development in subaltern societies in order to provide scholars with alternative ways of viewing education and development and to shape how subaltern peoples are understood and represented in academic research

Bibliography Index Modernity, Development and Decolonization of Knowledge in Central Asia Nafissa Insebayeva, 2022-01-04 This book joins the discussion on foreign aid triggered by the rise of multiplicity of emerging donors in international development and explores the transformation of Kazakhstan from a recipient country to a development aid provider Drawing on fieldwork in Nur Sultan and Almaty Kazakhstan between 2016 and 2019 this research evaluates the philosophy and core features of Kazakhstan's chosen development aid model and explains the factors that account for the construction of aid patterns of Kazakh donorship This book will be of interest to scholars of Central Asia and the emerging politics of Eurasia as well as scholars of politics and aid

Knowledge and Power in the Global Economy David Gabbard, 2000 Illuminates how the meaning of language used to discuss the role reform of US public schools reflects an essentially economic view of the world and offers a set of alternative concepts meanings for reformulating the role of US public schools Education and Modern Development in Subaltern Societies Seana M. McGovern, 1996 Why, 1993 Berliner China-Hefte, 2004 China Bettina Gransow, Pál Nyíri, Shiaw-Chian Fong, 2005 Twenty years ago foreign researchers once again began to venture into China for fieldwork Today the field itself has become mobile ephemeral and virtual as more research focuses on human mobility and communication The book takes a look at some of the trends and problems of fieldwork in and about China today touching on issues that range from Internet research to sexual harassment in the field foreign investors in China Chinese tourists abroad as research subjects and the role of social and poverty assessment in development Bettina Gransow teaches at the Free University Berlin Germany and Hohai University Nanjing China Pál Nyíri is a lecturer in anthropology and director of the Applied Anthropology Programme at Macquarie University Sydney Shiaw Chian Fong is a professor in the Department of Journalism National Chengchi University Taipei Women's Development Through "empowerment" Aradhana Sharma, 2001 Sustainable Development: Social policy, 2005 Papers presented at the Sixth Sustainable Development Conference held at Islamabad during 11-13 December 2003 Resources, Nations, and Indigenous Peoples Richard Howitt, John Connell, Philip Hirsch, 1996 Throughout this region the rights and concerns of indigenous peoples are making news Tensions between indigenous peoples and nation states take many forms but none is so definitive as the question of resource sovereignty Written by geographers anthropologists lawyers economists and field practitioners this book argues that these tensions are constructing a new geopolitics of identity and sovereignty within the nation states of Australasia Melanesia and Southeast Asia Building on the success of an earlier volume Mining and Indigenous Peoples in Australasia this volume goes beyond documenting the impacts of resource based development to examine five key themes in contemporary disputes the complex relationships between resources identity and sovereignty culture and gender issues in resource projects marginalisation of and negotiations with indigenous interests compensation and the monitoring of agreements and the roles of governments in mediating relations between resource industry and indigenous groups Detailed case studies illustrate and attest to the diverse concerns and the complexities of contemporary debates and disputes Resources Nations and Indigenous Peoples Case Studies from Australasia Melanesia and Southeast Asia provides a compelling analysis and will be invaluable for students public servants industry and community organisations in many spheres Cultivating Development David Mosse,2005 Critiques the very essence of development policy especially the complex relationship between policy and practice and role of participation Applied Anthropology in Australasia Sandy Toussaint,Jim Taylor,1999 Contains four papers by Birkhead Moore Ritchie and Stanton on aspects of applied anthropology in land claim consultancy and museum work annotated separately Procuring Water Sudhindra Sharma,2001 Rethinking Women in Development Joan Akinyi Othieno,2002 Feminism as Transformative Social Science ,1997 Knowledge, Power, and a Region Getnet Bekele,2005
