Development Encounters:

Development with a Body Andrea Cornwall, Sonia Correa, Susie Jolly, 2008-09-15 We used to talk about development with a human face We should be talking about development with a body Arit Oku Egbas African Regional Sexuality Resource Centre Nigeria Sex and sexuality have always had a place at the heart of the development agenda from concerns regarding population and environment to practices in education and efforts for protecting reproductive health and rights Yet this agenda has largely focused on negative dimensions of sexuality disease risk violation rather than positive aspects including rights to sexual fulfillment wellbeing and pleasure The shift towards a rights based approach to development has brought the human rights dimensions of sexuality into clearer view and consequently the need to address discriminatory laws and violations of the human rights of those whose sexual identity and practices diverge from dominant sexual orders norms This book offers compelling insights into contemporary challenges and transformative possibilities of the struggle for sexual rights It combines the conceptual with the political and offering inspiring examples of practical interventions and campaigns that emphasize the positive dimensions of sexuality It brings together reflections and experiences of researchers activists and practitioners from Brazil India Nigeria Peru Serbia South Africa Turkey the UK and Zambia From political discourse on sex and masculinity to sex work and trafficking from HIV and sexuality to struggles for legal reform and citizenship the authors explore the gains of creating stronger linkages between sexuality human rights and development

Development Encounters Pauline E. Peters, 2000 The field of development is subject to shifts in paradigms and it is important to examine systematically how these are realized in actual practice Two currently favored approaches are participation and indigenous knowledge In this volume s collected papers development researchers and practitioners share their ideas and experience on the different forms taken by participation and knowledge not limited to indigenous knowledge in the practice of development The development encounters they describe took place in sites ranging from villages in the Amazon India and southern Africa to research laboratories and corporate boardrooms in central Africa Latin America and the United States This timely and grounded account of participation and knowledge in the front lines will be of interest to a range of practitioners analysts and students of development

The Development Dictionary @25 Aram Ziai, 2020-05-21 Few books in the history of Development Studies have had an impact like The Development Dictionary A Guide to Knowledge as Power which was edited by Wolfgang Sachs and published by Zed Books in 1992 The Development Dictionary was crucial in establishing what has become known as the Post Development PD school This volume is devoted to the legacy of The Development Dictionary and to discussing Post Development This book originally published as a special issue of Third World Quarterly

Foundations of Interdisciplinary and Transdisciplinary Research Bianca Vienni-Baptista, Isabel Fletcher, Catherine Lyall, 2023-07-11 Introduction chapter is available Open Access under CC BY NC ND licence This groundbreaking reader is designed to lower the barriers to interdisciplinarity and transdisciplinarity in research Edited by experienced researchers from a range of different fields it paves the way for future scholarship and effective research collaborations across disciplines Chapters offer extracts from key academic texts on topics such as the design funding evaluation and communication of research providing those new to the field with a thorough grounding They highlight examples of interdisciplinary and transdisciplinary triumphs and challenges Concluding each chapter is a commentary provided by practitioners from diverse backgrounds many of whom are themselves developing new approaches to inter and transdisciplinarity The book is the first ever comprehensive reader for interdisciplinarity and transdisciplinarity essential reading for those seeking to become effective collaborative researchers complete with concise introductions extracts commentary and further reading in each chapter This is a much needed primer that improves our understanding of the characteristics of interdisciplinarity and transdisciplinarity unlocking their exciting potential in research and teaching within and beyond academia

Anthropology and Development Emma Crewe, Richard Axelby, 2013 An exploration of anthropological perspectives on the cultures moralities and politics of the world of aid and development

Translation Theory and Development Studies Kobus Marais, 2014-07-16 This book aims to provide a philosophical underpinning to translation and relate translation to development The second aim flows from the first section s argument that societies emerge out of amongst others complex translational interactions amongst individuals It will do so by conceptualising translation from a complexity and emergence point of view and relating this view on emergent semiotics to some of the most recent social research It will further fulfill its aims by providing empirical data from the South African context concerning the relationship between translation and development The book intends to be interdisciplinary in nature and to foster interdisciplinary research and dialogue by relating the newest trends in translation theory i e agency theory in the sociology of translation to development theory within sociology Data in the volume will be drawn from fields that have received very little if any attention in translation studies i e local economic development the knowledge economy and the informal economy

Language Use in Rural Development Clinton Robinson, 1996 CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE SOCIOLOGY OF LANGUAGE brings to students researchers and practitioners in all of the social and language related sciences carefully selected book length publications dealing with sociolinguistic theory methods findings and applications It approaches the study of language in society in its broadest sense as a truly international and interdisciplinary field in which various approaches theoretical and empirical supplement and complement each other The series invites the attention of linguists language teachers of all interests sociologists political scientists anthropologists historians etc to the development of the sociology of language

Tight Knit Elizabeth L. Krause, 2018-08-17 The coveted Made in Italy label calls to mind visions of nimble fingered Italian tailors lovingly sewing elegant high end clothing The phrase evokes a sense of authenticity heritage and rustic charm Yet as Elizabeth L Krause uncovers in Tight Knit Chinese migrants are the ones sewing Made in Italy labels into low cost items for a thriving fast fashion industry all the while adding new patterns to the social fabric of Italy s iconic industry Krause offers a revelatory look into how families involved in the fashion industry are coping with globalization based on longterm research in Prato the historic hub of textile production in the heart of metropolitan Tuscany She brings to the fore the tensions over value money beauty family care and belonging that are reaching a boiling point as the country struggles to deal with the same migration pressures that are triggering backlash all over Europe and North America Tight Knit tells a fascinating story about the heterogeneity of contemporary capitalism that will interest social scientists immigration experts and anyone curious about how globalization is changing the most basic of human conditions making a living and making a life Affect, Emotions and Power in Development Studies Theory and Practice Tanya Jakimow,2023-12-01 This book advances new research directions that explore the emotional and affective dimensions of development Going beyond merely placing emotion and or affect as the objects of study it examines development in fresh ways through analysis of its affective dimensions Affect and emotions are complicit in the structural conditions that sustain material and social inequalities and deprivations and critical to the potential for disruption and transformation The chapters in this volume demonstrate how affect and emotions enrich understandings of or rethink power configurations in development while being attentive to forces of destabilization and creativity They unravel the subtleties of power in development from micro to macro scales enhance the understanding of development as an inherently political process and highlight the possibilities for resistance and transformation The book introduces new lines of enquiry to understand power in development theory and practice grounded in rich empirical research from across Asia and Australia and will be a valuable resource for students and researchers of anthropology third world studies development studies and development theory The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Third World Quarterly
