Indigenous Teaching Disciplines and Perspectives for Higher Education Kgari-Masondo, Maserole Christina, 2025-03-28 Literature indicates that sociolinguists and educationists often claim multilingual practice and Africanizing and Indigenizing education will jeopardize national unity and social cohesion Such claims delay the implementation of decolonization policies and the transformation of the curriculum under false assumptions However research reveals many Indigenous students struggle with higher educational content which is often presented through languages that are unfamiliar to them This implies that there is a need to uncover resources that can assist in necessitating the implementation of Indigenous education globally and that all multilingual strategies in education must be based on quality mother tongue illustrative content as its foundation As a result further research on the subject is necessary to enhance teaching strategies that reach all Indigenous students Indigenous Teaching Disciplines and Perspectives for Higher Education illustrates the need for the implementation of a decolonized teaching and learning curriculum with integrated resources as models It explores how to improve Indigenous knowledge content and teaching methods Covering topics such as cultural identity African research methodology and Indigenous media this book is an excellent resource for teachers policymakers school administrators researchers scholars academicians and more Artificial Intelligence Literacy in Higher Education Imre Fekete,2025-07-08 This book explores the concept of artificial intelligence AI literacy within higher education addressing both instructors and students preparedness to engage with AI technologies responsibly and effectively By synthesising existing frameworks and empirical studies alongside presenting two original research studies the book bridges theoretical foundations with practical applications tailored for modern educational contexts Practical recommendations include methods to develop AI literacy skills focusing on ethical awareness technological competence and the potential for AI to enhance teaching and learning processes Aimed at higher education instructors stakeholders and students the book offers actionable insights and tools for fostering informed and critical engagement with AI aligned with lifelong learning goals and professional development needs
