Despair And Other Stories Of Ottawa:

Despair and Other Stories of Ottawa Andre Alexis, 2020-11-17 These eight stories reveal a world that is both recognizable and strange cities of anxiety and violence where quiet inhabitants lead outwardly banal lives that conceal sinister interiors The premises both fantastic and surreal are also eerily plausible they often follow the logic of dreams where the real can appear in disguise Though geographically rooted the setting from Ottawa to Toronto and the South of France take on an ephemeral dimension the geography is of the subconscious With his darkly philosophical bent and sly humour Alexis has fashioned an underworld and limned it with light Despair quakes with life and sings with the imaginative brilliance of one of the most accomplished new talents writing today Despair Andre Alexis, 2001-03-01 The exquisitely crafted haunting story collection from the award winning author of Childhood Following on the heels of his award winning first novel Childhood Andre Alexis's story collection Despair offers further proof of his brilliance and showcases his talent for spinning disturbing but elegant tales Emerging from the landscapes and folklores of Trinidad and Canada Despair reveals a world both recognizable and shockingly strange A failed artist with beautiful hands is driven by a fetish for injuries in The Third Terrace While on an excursion to a bakery a man wrestles with his capacity for evil deeds in The Metaphysics of Morals In The Night Piece a boy is haunted by a story about a soucouyant a vampire in the guise of an old woman In these eight beautifully crafted stories shimmering with malevolence and longing Alexis has fashioned an underworld and limned it with light
