Destination Moon:

Destination Moon Rod Pyle, 2005-11-01 The Apollo space program was the largest technological undertaking of all time and led to the greatest adventure of the 20th century. Born of the cold war it was moved forward by the passion of 100 000 workers and 20 billion over ten years. Over that time 12 courageous individuals stepped out onto the lunar surface and thus changed the history of humankind changing us into a space faring civilization. And then it was gone. Three years 9 missions six men on the surface of the moon. They explored they experimented and they came home. Here in one volume are the transcribed voices of the participants with expert commentary and retrospective reminiscences explained and put into context. From the triumphs of Neil Armstrong to Buzz Aldrin to the near disaster of Apollo 13 Houston we've got a problem it's all here the science the adventure the glory the letdown. One of the great stories of humankind's reaching for the stars.

Destination Moon (video), 1950 Coming Soon Keith M. Johnston, 2009-09-12 The audience's first exposure to a new movie is often in the form of a coming attraction trailer and short previews are also a vanguard for emerging technology and visual techniques. This book demonstrates how the trailer has educated audiences in new film technologies such as synchronized sound widescreen and 3 D tracing the trailer's status as a trailblazer on to new media screens and outlets such as television the Internet and the iPod. The impact and use of new technologies and the evolution of trailers beyond the big screen is followed into the digital era.

An Army of Phantoms J. Hoberman, 2013-01-29 The film critic's sweeping analysis of American cinema in the Cold War era is both utterly compulsive reading and majestic in its breadth and rigor. Film Comment: An Army of Phantoms is a major work of film history and cultural criticism by leading film critic J Hoberman. Tracing the dynamic interplay between politics and popular culture Hoberman offers the most detailed year by year look at Hollywood during the first decade of the Cold War ever published one that takes film analysis beyond the screen and sets it in its larger political context. Los Angeles Review of Books: By telling the story not just of what's on the screen but of what played out behind it Hoberman demonstrates how the nation's deep seated fears and wishes were projected onto the big screen. In this far reaching work of historical synthesis Cecil B DeMille rubs shoulders with Douglas MacArthur atomic tests are shown on live TV God talks on the radio and Joe McCarthy is bracketed with Marilyn Monroe. The American Scholar: From cavalry Westerns to apocalyptic sci fi flicks and biblical spectacles from movies to media events congressional hearings and political campaigns An Army of Phantoms reminds you what criticism is supposed to be revelatory reflective and as rapturous as the artwork itself. Time Out New York: An epic alternately fevered and measured account of what might be called the primal scene of American cinema. Cineaste: There's something majestic about the reach of Hoberman's ambitions the breadth and rigor of his research and especially the curatorial vision brought to historical data. Film Comment: The Science Fiction Film Reader Gregg Rickman, 2004-07 Limelight: An illustrated collection of essays by masters such as H G Wells Luis Bunuel Jorge Luis Borges Arthur C Clarke Anthony Burgess Joseph Campbell Pauline Kael George F Will Robin
