Destiny Paradise:

Destiny Paradise Margaret Mayo, 1976 A New Outlook Nicholas P. Snoek, 2013-08 A New Outlook is a study of revelation that employs a fictional setting to explore Christian religion and its background The fictional setting serves the purpose of providing a narrative structure to what is otherwise a journey from infinite past through cosmology to the current world situation as regard to revelation in history and in philosophico theological conceptual development This book is not an exercise of exegesis but source material is scriptural and is never treated lightly Only the fictional setting has a patina of entertainment and some grounding in the world of spoons and loons To wit there are no footnotes scholarship is not obtrusive but it does build the book

Islamic Philosophy and Theology William Montgomery Watt, 2008-09-01 Events are making clear to ever widening circles of readers the need for something more than a superficial knowledge of non European cultures In particular the blossoming into independence of numerous African states many of which are largely Muslim or have a Muslim head of state has made clear the growing political importance of the Islamic world and as a result the desirability of extending and deepening the understanding and appreciation of this great segment of mankind Islamic philosophy and theology are looked at together in a chronological framework in this volume From a modern standpoint this juxtaposition of the two disciplines is important for the understanding of both but it should be realized at the outset that it is a reversal of the traditional Islamic procedure Not merely were the disciplines different but in the earlier centuries the exponents were two different sets of persons trained in two different educational traditions each with its own separate institutions There was little personal contact between philosophers and theologians and the influence of the two disciplines on one another was largely by way of polemics Eventually while philosophy died out as a separate discipline in the Islamic world many parts of it were incorporated in theology This work is designed to give the educated reader something more than can be found in the usual popular books The work undertakes to survey a special part of the field and to show the present stage of scholarship Where there is a clear picture this will be given but where there are gaps obscurities and differences of opinion these will also be indicated This work is brilliant in its design style and intimate understanding It is a must read for specialists and policy makers alike W Montgomery Watt 1909 2006 was professor emeritus of Arabic and Islamic Studies at the University of Edinburgh He is the author of numerous books including Muslim Christian Encounters Perceptions and Misperceptions Islam A Short History Muhammad s Mecca and Islamic Surveys The Influence of Islam on Medieval Europe

Another View Nicholas P. Snoek, 2013-11 Another View is a study of revelation in which a fictional setting is used to explore revealed religion and its background The fictional setting provides a narrative structure to what is otherwise a journey from the infinite past to the current situation as regards revelation in history and in philosophical theological conceptual development This book is not an exercise of exegesis but a source material is never treated lightly Only the fictional setting has a patina of entertainment and some grounding in the world of solids To wit there are no footnotes
