After a car suddenly barrels toward them in the predawn darkness and slams the stranger into the hereafter, Chris's peaceful retirement is thrown into a tailspin once again. Even though the police declare the stranger's death a tragic accident, Chris knows better. Distressed, Chris heads to his photo gallery hoping for a distraction from the day's horrific start. But when another man is murdered in his beachside home within hours, Chris soon learns that the only thing the victims have in common is First Light Folly Beach's newest place of worship led by nontraditional preacher Burl Ives Costello. Assisted by his friend and self-proclaimed private detective Charles Fowler, Chris begins to dig into Costello's suspicious past. As Chris and Charles become more convinced that Costello is somehow tied to the deaths, the body count rises and no one is safe. In a new Folly Beach mystery, a retiree turned amateur sleuth and his quirky pals must put everything on the line, including their lives, to catch a killer before they become part of the death count. The Feisty Professor - Book Four Trev Haymer, 2020-02-21 The Feisty Professor is back yet again. Bridlington author Trev Haymer presents his ninth publication since retirement. This is Trev's fourth book in the popular The Feisty Professor series. In her mid-thirties, our spiky red-haired protagonist is a professor of Archaeology and Forensic Science who lectures at universities. Assisting the local cash-strapped police force, the intrepid investigator tackles yet more unusual mystery cases, most of which are set in and around Bretelton, an ancient Anglo-Saxon name for the present east coast seaside resort of Bridlington. As usual, Prof's cases are spiked with danger and spiced with humour. Films ... British Board of Film Censors, 1946 Crime Fiction John Scaggs, 2005-01-14 Crime Fiction provides a lively introduction to what is both a wide-ranging and hugely popular literary genre. Using examples from a variety of novels, short stories, films, and television series, John Scaggs presents a concise history of crime fiction from biblical narratives to James Ellroy, broadening the genre to include revenge tragedy and the gothic novel. It explores the key sub-genres of crime fiction such as Rational Criminal Investigation, The Hard Boiled Mode, The Police Procedural, and Historical Crime Fiction, locates texts and their recurring themes and motifs in a wider social and historical context, outlines the various critical concepts that are central to the study of crime fiction, including gender narrative theory, and film theory. It considers contemporary television series like C S I Crime Scene Investigation alongside the classic whodunnits of Agatha Christie. Accessible and clear, this comprehensive overview is the essential guide for all those studying crime fiction and concludes with a look at future directions for the genre in the twentieth-first century.
