Alumnae Bulletin of Randolph-Macon Woman's College Randolph-Macon Woman's College. Alumnae Association, 2000 Detour Through Spain Ruth Gordy Shanor, 2002 Queens Consort, Cultural Transfer and European Politics, c.1500-1800 Helen Watanabe-O'Kelly, Adam Morton, 2016-11-03 Queens Consort Cultural Transfer and European Politics examines the roles that queens consort played in dynastic politics and cultural transfer between their natal and marital courts during the sixteenth seventeenth and eighteenth centuries This collection of essays analyses the part that these queens played in European politics showing how hard and soft power high politics and cultural influences cannot be strictly separated It shows that the root of these consorts power lay in their dynastic networks and the extent to which they cultivated them The consorts studied in this book come from territories such as Austria Braunschweig Hanover Poland Portugal Prussia and Saxony and travel to among other places Britain Naples Russia Spain and Sweden The various chapters address different types of cultural manifestation among them collecting portraiture panegyric poetry libraries theatre and festivals learning genealogical literature and architecture The volume significantly shifts the direction of scholarship by moving beyond a focus on individual historical women to consider queens consort as a category making it valuable reading for students and scholars of early modern gender and political history Reconstructing the World Trade Organization for the 21st Century Kent Jones, 2015-01-02 Reconstructing the World Trade Organization for the 21st Century explores the reasons for the WTO s failure to achieve comprehensive multilateral trade liberalization in the new 21st century global economy The solution to the problem must come from institutional reforms that can promote global agreement on achieving the gains from trade The European Pharmaceutical Sector and Crime Vulnerabilities Tom Vander Beken, 2007 The influence of organised crime on business activities enterprises and economic sectors is a matter of concern for many policy makers across the world As a profit driven criminal activity organised crime operates in an environment which is not limited to the underworld economy alone Assessments of the threat posed by organised crime and strategic preventive actions to tackle this phenomenon require an understanding of the vulnerable spots in the legal economy that are or might be exploited by crime This book is the outcome of a study known under the acronym MAVUS II Method for and Assessment of Vulnerability of Sectors II which addresses this issue The study financed under the 2005 AGIS programme of the European Commission provides a vulnerability profile of the European pharmaceutical sector based on a new methodology to scan economic sectors for their vulnerability to organised crime Both vulnerability study and methodological tool are intended as a guide for actions and initiatives to be taken by governments law enforcement bodies and economic players The Book of Drills Mary Barnard Horne, 1896 The Bulletin of the American Iron and Steel Association American Iron and Steel Association, 1898 Celestina and the Ends of Desire E. Michael Gerli, 2011-01-01 One of the most widely read and translated Spanish works in sixteenth century Europe was Fernando de Rojas Celestina a 1499 novel in dialogue about a couple that faces heartbreak and tragedy after being united by the titular brothel madam In Celestina and the Ends of Desire E Michael Gerli illustrates how this work straddles the medieval and the modern in its exploration of changing categories of human desire from the European courtly love tradition to the interpretation of want as an insatiable destructive force Gerli's analysis draws on a wide range of Celestina scholarship but is unique in its use of modern literary and psychoanalytic theory to confront the problematic links between literature and life Explorations of influence of desire on knowledge action and lived experience connect the work to seismic shifts in the culture of early modern Europe Engaging and original Celestina and the Ends of Desire takes a fresh look at the timeless work's widespread appeal and enduring popularity The United States

Teresa of Avila Cathleen

Medwick, 2001-01-16 A refreshingly modern reconsideration of Saint Teresa 1515-1582 one of the greatest mystics and reformers to emerge within the sixteenth century Catholic Church whose writings are a keystone of modern mystical thought From the very beginning of her life in a convent following the death of her mother and the marriage of her older sister it was clear that Teresa's expansive nature intensity and energy would not be easily confined Cathleen Medwick shows us a powerful daughter of the Church and her times who was a very human mass of contradictions a practical and no nonsense manager and yet a flamboyant and intrepid presence who bent the rules of monastic life to accomplish her work while managing to stay one step ahead of the Inquisition And she exhibited a very personal brand of spirituality often experiencing raptures of an unorthodox arguably erotic nature that left her frozen in one position for hours unable to speak Out of a concern for her soul and her reputation her superiors insisted that she account for every voice and vision as well as the sins that might have engendered them thus giving us the account of her life that is now considered a literary masterpiece Medwick makes it clear that Teresa considered her major work the reform of the Carmelites an enterprise requiring all her considerable persuasiveness and her talent for administration We see her moving about Spain with the assurance if not the authority of a man in spite of debilitating illness to establish communities of nuns who lived scrupulously devout lives without luxuries In an era when women were seldom taken seriously she even sought and received permission to found two religious houses for men In this fascinating account Cathleen Medwick reveals Teresa as both more complex and more comprehensible than she has seemed in the past She illuminates for us the devout and worldly woman behind the centuries old iconography of the saint Public Opinion, 1893 The Christian Advocate, 1900 The Friend, 1877 Our Paper, 1899
