Developing Character In Students A Primer:

Developing Character in Students Philip Fitch Vincent, 1994 A resource that gives practical guidelines and numerous examples for building character education programs designed to help children and youth develop personal family and community responsibility

Developing Character in Students Philip Vincent, 2007-12-01 Provides valuable info to educators parents Teaching for Character Development The Value of Rules Cooperative Learning Teaching for Thinking Reading for Character Caring Through Service to Others Implementation Handbook of Prosocial Education Philip M. Brown, Michael W. Corrigan, Ann Higgins-D'Alessandro, 2012-10-12 Handbook of Prosocial Education is the definitive theoretical practical and policy guide to the prosocial side of education the necessary second side of the educational coin Academic teaching and learning are the first side of education however academic success depends upon the structures and support of prosocial educational efforts from promoting positive school climate to fostering student and teacher development to civic literacy and responsible and critical citizenship participation The Handbook of Prosocial Education chapters written by highly respected researchers and outstanding educators represent the wide range of research based prosocial interventions from pre school through high school The chapters explore and explain how prosocial education helps teachers create effective classroom learning environments to support the development of the whole student principals encourage positive school climate and superintendents work to improve the health and well being of their systems As readers will learn when done well prosocial education develops the capacities and competencies of students teachers and school administrators that lead to a more autonomous positive self concept greater sense of purpose more socially responsible behaviors and increased connections between families schools and communities This book pulls together in one place for the first time the various threads that create the prosocial education tapestry making a compelling case for the necessity of changing national educational policy that continues to be ever more oriented to only the academic side of the educational coin thus jeopardizing the foundational and historic purpose of educating our children for their full human development and participation in our democracy

Assessing Student Outcomes - Why, Who, What, How? J. Fredericks Volkwein, 2011-11-22 This volume offers administrators and practitioners a summary guide to assessment in higher education from the reasons for undertaking assessment to the delivery of findings It opens with the questions that precede an effective study and drive research design To what extent is the study aimed at educational improvement and to what extent is it aimed at external accountability Are the results expected to demonstrate goal attainment improvement comparison to others meeting standards cost effective investment What is the population from whom assessment data are being collected Are we measuring the knowledge and skills of individuals and making decisions about their remediation certification or development Or are we sampling from particular groups of students and comparing them to each other or perhaps to themselves over time The core of the volume is devoted to the objects of assessment basic skills general education knowledge attainment in the major personal growth attitudes and satisfaction and alumni outcomes keeping in mind both cognitive and noncognitive measures One chapter describes common obstacles to effective assessment others describe conceptual models research methods and data collection strategies and instruments The concluding chapter underscores the importance of communicating research results effectively This is a special volume of the Jossey Bass higher education quarterly report series New Directions for Institutional Research Always timely and comprehensive New Directions for Institutional Research provides planners and administrators in all types of academic institutions with guidelines in such areas as resource coordination information analysis program evaluation and institutional management Middle School Journal ,1999 Educational Review ,1917

Encyclopedia of Education and Human Development Stephen J. Farenga, Daniel Ness, 2015-07-17 This comprehensive and exhaustive reference work on the subject of education from the primary grades through higher education combines educational theory with practice making it a unique contribution to the educational reference market Issues related to human development and learning are examined by individuals whose specializations are in diverse areas including education psychology sociology philosophy law and medicine The book focuses on important themes in education and human development Authors consider each entry from the perspective of its social and political conditions as well as historical underpinnings The book also explores the people whose contributions have played a seminal role in the shaping of educational ideas institutions and organizations and includes entries on these institutions and organizations This work integrates numerous theoretical frameworks with field based applications from many areas in educational research

Redefining Education and Development Kaitano Dube, 2024-10-18 The book aligns with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals SDGs particularly Goal 4 which focuses on quality education It explores the evolving role of education as a critical driver for achieving all 17 SDGs by providing a platform for discussing innovative educational models and theories that foster sustainable development The book takes an interdisciplinary approach merging educational theory developmental practice and human psychology to address complex global challenges hindering sustainable development The book includes case studies and empirical research such as exploring student entrepreneurship in the agricultural sector and the factors bridging the gap between entrepreneurial intention and venture creation These examples provide readers with practical applications of theoretical concepts and demonstrate the real world impact of educational innovations which is at the core of education delivery for all and how education touches on other areas of the SDGs The book offers valuable insights for policymakers educators and development practitioners by presenting research and theory based analyses It suggests ways to improve the academic environment to foster entrepreneurship and innovation which are key to economic development and job creation especially in regions with high youth unemployment rates The content suggests educational reforms that are responsive to the changing societal and economic landscapes The book's blend of theory and practice targets a broad audience including academic scholars students development agencies non governmental organisations and policymakers It seeks to engage these diverse readers in a conversation about the future of education and its role in achieving sustainable development In summary the book seeks to provide a comprehensive exploration of the nexus between education development and human needs in the context of the SDGs offering innovative perspectives and practical solutions to equip readers to contribute to sustainable global development
