Supervision Across the Content Areas Sally J. Zepeda,R. Stewart Mayers,2014-05-22 You became a school leader after succeeding in your particular content area and or grade level Now you re responsible for the entire school You are accountable for everything that goes on including results from those who teach outside your areas of original expertise Supervision Across the Content Areas provides tools and strategies to help you effectively supervise all of your teachers including those in contents areas or grade levels in which you may not have had personal classroom experience While focusing on four key content areas Mathematics Science English Language Arts and Social Studies this book also provides supervision tools for other content areas foreign languages fine arts physical education etc Also included are tools and strategies to help you supervise teachers who use instructional strategies such as differentiated instruction Socratic Seminars cooperative learning and inquiry apply local and national standards to frame your instructional program ensure accountability of teachers who use multiple intelligences brain based learning and other innovations The International Handbook of Educational Research in the Asia-Pacific Region J.P. Keeves,Ryo Watanabe,2013-11-11 The aim of the Handbook is to present readily accessible but scholarly sources of information about educational research in the Asia Pacific region The scale and scope of the Handbook is such that the articles included in it provide substantive contributions to knowledge and understanding of education in the Asia region In so doing the articles present the problems and issues facing education in the region and the findings of research conducted within the region that contribute to the resolution of these problems and issues Moreover since new problems and issues are constantly arising the articles in the Handbook also indicate the likely directions of future developments The different articles within the Handbook seek to conceptualize the problems in each specific content area under review provide an integration of the research conducted within that area the theoretical basis of the research the practical implications of the research and the contribution of the research towards the resolution of the problems identified Thus the articles do not involve the reporting of newly conducted research but rather require a synthesis of the research undertaken in a particular area with reference to the research methods employed and the theoretical frameworks on which the research is based In general the articles do not advocate a single point of view but rather present alternative points of view and comment on the debate and disagreements associated with the conduct and findings of the research Furthermore it should be noted that the Handbook is not concerned with research methodology and only considers the methods employed in inquiry in so far as the particular methods of research contribute to the effective investigation of problems and issues that have arisen in the conduct and provision of education at different levels within the region

Teaching Reading Pamela J. Farris, Carol J. Fuhler, Maria P. Walther, 2004 A Balanced Approach to Literacy Instruction provides students with a strong background in using a balanced approach to literacy instruction Using the National Standards for English Language Arts as a guide the book calls for classroom teachers to become knowledgeable of and to master several literacy instructional practices applying each when appropriate A wide variety of literacy instructional practices are clearly presented Theories are accompanied by practical research based ideas that students can use as they complete their field based experiences and go out into their own classrooms In addition to its in depth coverage of phonics comprehension assessment and vocabulary instructional strategies A Balanced Approach to Literacy Instruction has wide coverage of technology and writing Ways to meet the needs of diverse student populations are discussed throughout the book Students also are provided with thorough lesson plans in reading writing and technology for them to consider using or adapting for their field based experiences
