Developing Consumer Attitudes Joseph G. Bonnice, Rosella Bannister, 1986 On Becoming a Consumer James McNeal, 2007-02-19 The book demonstrates how consumer development is intertwined with cognitive and motor development each of the three dependent on the other two Showing consumer behavior being responsible for body and mind development is new thinking yet the examples are clearly presented so that any interested person can grasp them Presenting consumer behavior in stages of development while logical is essentially new also We are familiar with cognitive development for example being described in stages but not CB In fact stages of cognitive development are sometimes used as a framework for explaining consumer behavior but not its development as such In this sense then the book might be considered cutting edge as compared to one that offers a slightly different approach to the existing thought on consumer behavior

Market Development for Genetically Modified Foods V. Santaniello, Robert E. Evenson, David Zilberman, 2002-03-06 The investment climate for firms producing genetically modified GM agricultural products has recently experienced considerable change with the occurrence of remarkably high rate of farmer acceptance but considerable consumer resistance The present system that involves firms developing biotech products farmers producing the products food and related agribusiness industrial firms and consumers of food is very volatile This however will soon be affected by changes in regulatory trade and food safety regimes This book addresses these key issues and is based on papers presented at the fourth meeting of The International Consortium on Agricultural Biotechnology Research ICABR on Economics of Agricultural Biotechnology held at Ravello Italy in August 2000 Organized in four parts this volume focuses on Consumer reactions to GM food information Regulatory issues Farmer acceptance of biotech
