an interdisciplinary examination of Africa's political, social and cultural developments and challenges. Focusing on Social Movements and Literature, Social Change and Culture, the book brings together a wide range of essays by committed scholars, writers and activists concerned with progressive approaches to Africa's dilemmas. Beginning with an overview by anthropologist Cheryl Mwaria, African Visions addresses such issues as structural adjustments, religious freedom, human rights, democratization, educational movements and health care. Particular analyses consider intellectual property, student activism and the AIDS epidemic. Mwaria, Federici and McLaren also explore the way social and cultural questions have been treated in literary works and theoretical studies dealing with hybridity, sexual politics, literacy, socialist orientations and language. Noted literary scholars Odun Balogun and Alamin Mazrui consider aspects of these issues. The collection also examines trends in literature publishing and theater in such countries as Algeria, Niger, Nigeria and South Africa in relation to themes such as gender, popular culture, African novels and protest. Highlighting articles by two of Africa's leading activist writers, Dennis Brutus of South Africa stressing regional cooperation and Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o of Kenya advocating African languages, African Visions avoids the pessimism associated with numerous 20th century studies. Brutus and Ngũgĩ consider the economic and cultural effects of globalization and the necessity for promoting self-determination. An essential resource for all scholars and students concerned with contemporary African life and culture.
