The Economies of the Arab World (RLE Economy of Middle East) Yusuf Sayigh, 2014-10-30 This book a comprehensive study of twelve of the economies of key countries of the Arab world has three main objectives to record the developmental achievements and failings of each country to examine the main issues arising in the drive for development and to assess the future outlook for development for each country Most of the countries studied only gained independence from their colonial masters in recent decades and the process of economic development has necessarily been accompanied by political development First published in 1978

Bureaucracy and Development in the Arab World Joseph G. Jabbra, 1989-01-01

The Dilemma of Development in the Arabian Peninsula Osama Abdul Rahman, 2023-07-07 This book first published in 1987 and by one of Saudi Arabia s most distinguished academics reviews the experience of the Arab oil producers in social economic and political development in the key period of the Seventies and Eighties It is broadly pessimistic about the prospects for future development and sceptical about past achievements It argues that the petro bureaucracy in the Arabian Peninsula has failed to establish the basic principles of effective development because it has been mesmerised by the vast oil revenues it has attempted to administer The book suggests that in many respects the oil revenues have obstructed serious development because they have made the Arabian economies totally dependent on one expendable resource and this has made them too vulnerable to external pressures and interests Furthermore the oil revenues have encouraged fantasy and wishful thinking which have skewed the development process and stimulated pseudo development The book makes clear that until the petro bureaucracy adopts a realistic approach to development there can be no prospect of real development in the

Arabian Peninsula Stock Markets of the Arab World A. S. Abdul Hadi, 2023-05-31 First published in 1988 Stock Markets of the Arab World provides a sound description and analysis of the stock market situation in Arab countries and an evaluation of previous attempts at the integration of capital markets Foreign interest in the oil producing Arab countries has grown due to the accumulation of international reserves Oil producers are looking for an alternative to their near term investments in United States Securities through a diversification of their economies This book argues that these countries could profitably invest these reserves through an integration of their securities markets It also says that prospects of increased linkages among Arab domestic markets do exist This is an interesting read for scholars and researchers of Middle East studies Arab economy and economics in general Economic Development of the Arab Countries Saïd El-Naggar, 1993 This volume edited by Saïd El Naggar is the fifth in a series of seminars dealing with economic issues of particular importance to the Arab countries Held in Manama Bahrain in February 1993 it covered topics pertaining to economic development of the Arab countries in the nineties The seven papers that were presented comprised economic reform in the Arab countries including particularly structural issues investment policies and capital flows inter Arab labor movements environment and development development of human resources and European economic integration An overview of the topics is presented by the seminar moderator Saïd El Naggar World social science report, 2016 UNESCO, International Social Science Council, University of Sussex (UK). Institute of Development Studies, 2016-09-22 The Report launched on 22 September at the Royal Swedish Academy of Sciences in Stockholm highlights significant gaps in social science data about inequalities in different parts of the world and to support progress towards more inclusive societies calls for more robust research into the links between economic inequalities and disparities in areas such as gender education and health The Problems Of Arab Economic Development And Integration Adda Guecioueur, 2019-07-11 In this book scholars journalists and officials of Arab pan Arab and non Arab institutions afford insights into the problems of Arab economic development and integration The contributors who met on the occasion of the 11th Arab Summit also known as the First Arab Economic Summit demonstrate that Arab economic integration is the best means by which individual Arab countries can achieve economic development Their study of the integration process the obstacles encountered and the results achieved in addition to being of interest to anyone concerned with the Arab world is of particular relevance to those studying economic development in the Third World and South South or North South relations The Arab World Allan M. Findlay, 2002-09-11 Disruption following the Gulf War and the need to satisfy both rising economic aspirations and the Islamic values of the region s peoples demands fresh examination of development issues in the Arab world This introductory text assesses how agricultural industrial and urban development has evolved in the Arab region Contrasting Arab and Western interpretations of development it draws on case studies covering states as diverse as Saudi Arabia Yemen Morocco and Jordan The author suggests that until the Arabs define their own identity there will continue to be change but not
