Ddr Das Ende Eines Staates:

The Role of the Masses in the Collapse of the GDR J. Grix, 2000-11-24 This book examines the role of the masses in the collapse of the East German regime and state in 1989 in the northern district of Schwerin It shows the extent to which citizens of the GDR dictatorship were instrumental in their state's demise The bottom up approach employed in contrast to the study of power wielding elites and opposition explores the shift in mood and behaviour of citizens which brought about the internal collapse of the state

The Stasi Files Unveiled Barbara Miller, In 1992 the massive files of East Germany's infamous Ministry for State Security the Stasi were made publicly available and thousands of former East Germans began to confront their contents Finally it was possible for ordinary citizens to ascertain who had worked for the Stasi either on a full time basis or as an unofficial employee the Stasi's term for an informer The revelations from these documents sparked feuds old and new among a population already struggling through enormous social and political upheaval Drawing upon the Stasi files and upon interviews with one time informers this book examines the impact of the Stasi legacy in united Germany Barbara Miller examines such aspects of the informer's experience as the recruitment procedure daily life and work motivation and justification She goes on to consider the dealings of politicians and the courts with the Stasi and its employees Her analysis then turns to the way in which this aspect of recent German history has been remembered and the phenomenal impact of the opening of the files on such perceptions of the past The Stasi Files Unveiled Guilt and Compliance in a Unified Germany offers important new perspectives on the nature of individual and collective memory and is a fascinating investigation of modern German society Barbara Miller graduated from the University of Glasgow in 1991 with a degree in German and psychology She taught and researched in Germany and Austria before completing her doctoral thesis in Glasgow in 1997 She is now based in Sydney Australia

Voices in Times of Change David Rock, 2000-09-01 Taking an interdisciplinary approach this volume offers an overview of the role of writers intellectuals citizens and the churches both before but particularly after 1989 in the GDR and the new Germany Friedrich Schorlemmer provides the focal point giving the book its coherence Issues related to his role in the GDR church and citizens movement are examined as well as his support for GDR writers both before and after unification and his own writings on east and west German literature After general surveys on intellectuals civil rights groups opposition movements and churches in the transformation of east Germany the volume focuses on Friedrich Schorlemmer himself a chapter on the significance of the role that he played is followed by interviews with him and an original essay by him giving his personal view of the role of intellectuals citizens and writers in east Germany The volume is rounded off by a chapter on the reactions of lesser known writers and finally on the responses of prominent GDR writers to unification and on the changing role of writers in society Combining literary and cultural with social and political analysis this volume provides a lively and multifaceted picture of the new Germany

Everyday Subversion Kerry Kathleen Riley,2008 Tracing the evolution of grassroots social movements in the former German Democratic Republic GDR this work reveals the democratically spirited subversive forms of communication that were practiced behind the Wall before it fell on November 9 1989 State Security and Mapping in the GDR Dagmar Unverhau,2006 As of 1958 in the German Democratic Republic GDR the Ministry for State Security was responsible for classified material including topographic maps which were produced and published by the Administration for Surveying and

Mapping in the Ministry of Internal Affairs and by the Military Topographic Service in the Ministry of National Defence In order to make sure that topographic documents were handled stored safeguarded and administered according to the GDR s security doctrine the Ministry for State Security maintained its own Surveying Line within Main Department VII Counter Intelligence in the Ministry of Internal Affairs German People s Police Following the Conference of the Geodetic Services of the Socialist States held in Moscow in 1965 the National Defence Council of the GDR adopted a resolution stating among other things that topographic maps in the uniform Co ordinate System 42 were only allowed to be kept in the offices of the so called armed organs the Ministry of National Defence the Ministry for State Security and the Ministry of Internal Affairs Maps used by anyone else were to be recalled and replaced by an Edition for the National Economy AV from which the uniform sheet line geodetic grids trigonometric points and quality and quantity details as well as other confidential information had to be removed Moreover maps for the general public were to feature distortions of direction and scale and inaccuracies of up to pm 3 km The purpose of this collection is to illuminate both the Ministry for State Security s influence on mapping in the GDR and the ulterior motives behind its practices Historians cartographers and geographers including expert contemporary witnesses explore these topics from a variety of viewpoints and provide archivists map historians and other map users with information helpful for evaluating and dealing with maps published in the former GDR
