De Nederlanders In Napoleons Garde Dhonneur:

Napoleon's Guards of Honour Ronald Pawly, 2012-03-20 One of the least understood of Napoleon's corps were the four regiments of Gardes d'honneur raised in 1813 during the frantic rebuilding of the French cavalry after the huge losses in Russia. Recruited from the leading social classes, uniformed and equipped at their own expense and accompanied by servants to take care of such unpleasant chores as stable duty, these men were promised commissions as officers after a year's service in the ranks. Though spectacularly unready for combat upon their arrival with the army, the Guards of Honour would gain skill and confidence while serving alongside the light cavalry of the Imperial Guard in the campaigns of Saxony and France 1813-14 and distinguished themselves in battle at Hanau and Rheims. This is the story of their organisation, uniforms and service researched from rare archives and memoirs and illustrated with portraits, surviving uniform items and meticulous colour plates.

Historical research in the Low Countries 1970-1975 Alice C. Carter, 2024-09-16 The five review articles included in this volume were produced by the Dutch History Seminar of the University of London with the assistance of several Belgian and Dutch historians. They first appeared in the volumes VI-X of the Acta Historiae Neerlandicae in 1978, renamed The Low Countries History Yearbook, a periodical published by the Dutch Historical Society with the objective of bringing new publications on the history of the Low Countries in the Dutch language to the attention of English-speaking historians. These articles have been republished and provided with indexes in the hope that in this form they will also prove to be useful to students of Belgian and Dutch history who have not been regular readers of the Acta. Should this publication be favourably received, a subsequent volume covering the years 1976-1981 may be issued.

THE EDITORS VII Survey of recent Dutch Historiography ALICE C. CARTER Editor INTRODUCTION This bibliographical article has been put together by members of the Dutch history seminar held at London University's Institute of Historical Research. The article is intended for non-Dutch reading scholars and indeed all who are interested in Netherlands history. An attempt has been made and will continue to be made to survey important works published in the year previous to that in which the article is drawn up. This year we have concerned ourselves with books or in the earlier part of 1971.

De Nederlanders in Napoleons Garde d'Honneur Wilhelm Franz Lichtenauer, 1971 Napoleonic Military History Donald D. Horward, 1986 Acta Historiae Neerlandicae W. Prevenier, R. van Uytven, J. J. Brulez, R. van Eenoo, 2012-12-06 The editors of the seventh volume of Acta Historiae Neerlandicae have followed the same lines as those adopted for its predecessor. Studies have again been selected which throw light on the history of the Low Countries, the choice again being directed to subjects likely to be of interest to foreign scholars lacking knowledge of the Dutch language. For this reason, articles fairly general in scope have been chosen; studies of local interest or concerned with matters of detail have not been included. In this volume a wide diversity of topics is treated. Included are studies in the economic and social history of the later Middle Ages and on subjects in the fields of the sixteenth and early half of the eighteenth centuries There are two articles on the nineteenth century Dutch statesman Thorbecke 1972 was the anniversary of his death And there are also contributions on the homeland of Erasmus and on Dutch reactions to the publication of Darwin s Origins of Species Also included are surveys of recent historical publications in the Netherlands and of those from Belgian historians that appeared in Dutch A group of English historians working under the guidance of Professor Swart of University College London has surveyed the former this article being edited by Mrs Alice Carter of the London School of Economics The task of the late Professor Dhondt of the University of Ghent in connection with the survey of the Belgian contributions written in Dutch has been taken over by W
