Dead Jazz Guys And Other Stories:

Dead Jazz Guys Phil Kawana, 1996 Dead Jazz Guys often funny sometimes bleak is the first collection of short stories by critically acclaimed writer Phil Kawana Narrating Indigenous Modernities Michaela Moura-Koçoğlu, 2011 Preliminary Material Things are not exactly black or white in Aotearoa The Many Facets of Kiwi Identity Fragmentation Reconsidered Transcultural Identities in the Making Narratives of Be Longing Mori Literary Voices Advancing Narratives of Un Belonging Unmasking Cleavage Cleaving to Identities Transcultural Readings Recombining Repertoires Navigating Transcultural Currents Stories of Indigenous Modernities Works Cited Index Dhuuluu-Yala Anita Heiss, 2003 Dhuuluu Yala is a Wiradjuri phrase meaning to talk straight and this book is straight talk about publishing Indigenous literature in Australia It also includes broader issues that writers need to consider engaging with readers and reviewers The book covers the period up to the mid 1900s though some references are included up to 2000 Changes have been made since that date however the issues identified in Dhuuluu Yala remain current and to a large extent unresolved The history of defining Aboriginality in Australia and the experience of being Aboriginal have both impacted on the production of Aboriginal writing today These twin themes are the major focus of the book The pioneering roles of Aboriginal writers who have gone before and created a space has allowed for the growth of an Indigenous publishing industry Indeed a literary and publishing culture have developed also because of the increasing desire and need for an authentic Indigenous voice in Australian literature Although funding and other mechanisms are in place and possibilities afforded Indigenous writers have improved opportunities are still limited leading to some authors choosing to self publish Telling Stories Jacqueline Bardolph, André Viola, Jean-Pierre Durix, 2001 The present volume is a highly comprehensive assessment of the postcolonial short story since the thirty six contributions cover most geographical areas concerned Another important feature is that it deals not only with exclusive practitioners of the genre Mansfield Munro but also with well known novelists Achebe Armah Atwood Carey Rushdie so that stimulating comparisons are suggested between shorter and longer works by the same authors In addition the volume is of interest for the study of aspects of orality dialect dance rhythms circularity and trickster figure for instance and of the more or less conflictual relationships between the individual character or implied author and the community Furthermore the marginalized status of women emerges as another major theme both as regards the past for white women settlers or the present for urbanized characters primarily in Africa and India The reader will also have the rare pleasure of discovering Janice Kulik Keefer's Fox her version of what she calls in her commentary displaced autobiography or creative non fiction Lastly an extensive bibliography on the postcolonial short story opens up further possibilities for research The Journal of Commonwealth Literature , 1997 One number each year includes Annual bibliography of Commonwealth literature New Zealand Books in Print 2004 Thorpe-Bowker Staff, 2004-06 Directory containing updated bibliographic information on all in print New Zealand books 33rd edition of an annual publication The 12 500 book entries are listed by
