Demystifying Academic Writing in Higher Education: A Process View on Academic Textual Production Xinghua Liu,Rui Alexandre Alves,Angelique Aitken ,Josef Schmied,2025-10-30 Academic writing in this Research Topic refers to the type of writing demonstrating students disciplinary knowledge of and proficiency in synthesizing analyzing and responding critically to new information Hyland 2004 Swales 1990 which may include those genres like course essays project reports research proposals lab notes journal articles conference paper theses and dissertations As the current workplaces have become increasingly specialized higher education worldwide has been increasingly charged with the task of developing students academic writing and correspondingly on students parts learning through writing has been necessary for them to succeed in higher education To prepare university students for writing challenges during the past decades numerous studies have been devoted to the study of linguistic and rhetorical resources in students academic writing under such umbrella terms like style reader awareness authorial voice writers identity stance evaluation textual structures steps and moves Charles Hunston Hinkel 2002 However previous research on academic writing has been predominantly focused on the linguistic and rhetorical aspects namely the final product of students writing while the nature and processes of composition students engagement and individual differences and the influence of contextual factors like emerging technology have been under explored Thus the goal of this Research Topic is to bring a process oriented and dynamic perspective to the study of textual production in academic contexts by both encouraging an expanded view of existing research paradigms and also welcoming novel approaches Data can be collected by using corpus building interviews and questionnaires but we would also welcome the use of experimental methods and a mixed method approach for data collection Meanwhile previous research mainly studied university students who were learning English as a second or foreign language hence we also welcome research examining first language writers and students who are learning a second or foreign language other than English We believe for the study of the complex phenomenon like academic writing no single method or tool can suffice Therefore we strongly recommend a more creative perspective in data collection and analyzing and interpreting academic writing Papers can present quantitative data analyses based on experimental design or qualitative data analyses stemmed from more ethnographic oriented research Systematic review studies are also welcome We encourage contributions related but not restricted to the following topics 1 Cognitive processes in academic texts planning composing and revisions and student writers individual differences 2 Metacognition and self regulation in academic texts planning composing and revisions and student writers individual differences 3 Motivation and self efficacy in academic texts planning composing and revisions and student writers individual differences 4 Linguistic and rhetorical choices identity construction and disciplinary knowledge construction 5 Student writers textual production peer feedback and interactions with discourse communities 6 Affordances and challenges of artificial intelligence AI in the process of academic textual production in higher education   A Writer's Reference with Writing about Literature Diana Hacker,Nancy Sommers,2024-10-01 Your college writing will be one way you put your ideas and your self out into the world A Writer s Reference helps you strengthen your skills for that important work It helps you develop a range of literacies writing reading thinking collaborating using information and working responsibly with AI Acknowledging that generative AI tools are part of many writer s processes A Writer s Reference teaches concrete flexible strategies for applying your human intelligence to artificial intelligence see C1 a and the AI tips throughout It helps writers to see AI not as a substitute but a starting point because if you ve heard the expression you do you know that AI simply can t do you Not authentically It seems magical but in fact it understands nothing can t think and won t ever replace the human voice your readers will want to hear   A Writer's Reference with Exercises Diana Hacker,Nancy Sommers,2024-09-26 A Writer s Reference with Exercises answers common writing questions helps you accomplish college assignments with confidence and gives you strategies for using AI tools responsibly to save time but still sound like you   British Universities' Guide to Graduate Study ,1993   Generative AI in the English Composition Classroom Daniel Plate,Elizabeth Melick,James Hutson,Susan Edele,2024-09-18 Designed to cater to the needs of both novice and seasoned writing instructors this book provides a range of practical and adaptable strategies for integrating generative artificial intelligence AI into English writing curricula Generative AI in the English Composition Classroom proposes strategic methodologies to ensure that AI is utilized as a facilitator of learning and creativity rather than as a shortcut to academic success With a particular emphasis on sophisticated large language models such as Claude ChatGPT and Gemini this book critically addresses potential challenges including concerns related to academic integrity It includes case studies and practical strategies to exemplify how AI can enhance the writing process while emphasizing the continuing importance of a solid foundation in writing structure processes and rhetorical strategies These case studies and strategies are designed for immediate application offering educators and students practical tools to effectively navigate AI augmented writing environments Finally the book looks to the future discussing the evolving skillsets required in the workforce and how educators can equip students for a future in which AI is an integral component A forward thinking and invaluable guide this book will be of interest to educators involved in teaching English Composition and writing The Locomotive Engine and Its Development; a Popular Treatise on the Gradual Improvements Made in Railway Engines Between 1803 and 1893 Clement Edwin Stretton,1893 The Computing Teacher ,1993 The Model Engineer and Electrician ,1904 Computers in Education ,1990 EasyWriter Andrea Lunsford,2025-09-25 EasyWriter is for every writer rule followers and risk takers AI users and those opting out confident readers and those still learning It s accessible affordable and reliable Computers in Education Anne McDougall,Carolyn Dowling,IFIP Technical Committee 3, Education,1990 This book is the result of the 1990 World Conference on Computers in Education These conferences held only once every five years bring together computer educators from around the world to share their ideas experiences achievements and frustrations in this rapidly developing field The papers are grouped into streams and mini conferences reflecting the logical organization of the conference The streams include elementary secondary university vocational education and training research and rainbow for papers that cut across the streams The mini conference sections address the use of computer based training in industry new tools in the classroom and computing in distance education
