Becoming a Wildlife Professional Scott E. Henke, Paul R. Krausman, 2017-09 Published in association with The Wildlife Society Working Families at the Margins United States. Congress. House. Select Committee on Children, Youth, and Families, 1989 Abstract This hearing examines both statistical and personal accounts of working families in America's small towns and rural communities. Testimony was received from local social service providers from rural areas. Higher Education, Place, and Career Development

Rosie Alexander, 2024-11-21 Drawing connections between the findings of a research project following young graduates from the Scottish islands of Orkney and Shetland, current international evidence, and theoretical literature, this book argues that understanding rural and island student transitions can expose the wider dynamics of place and mobility at play during student and early career experiences. Highlighting the importance of a career perspective, Rosie Alexander encourages readers to consider how career pathways develop across time and across transition points, unsettling the notion of a straightforward transition through university into the workplace. The book uncovers how student trajectories are developed through interweaving dynamics of relationships, place, and career routes, and unpacks the implications for policymakers and practitioners. It contends that a much greater spatial awareness is necessary to understand and support the educational and career pathways of higher education students This is a crucial read for higher education researchers policymakers and students interested in rurality as well as access to and transition from higher education
