Days (Días) Dennis L. Siluk, 2014-07-16 Most folks to include poets prefer poetry on death to entail mostly courage and strength I don't disagree completely with that only partly for submissive suffering is also involved yet many folks just do not want to look at both sides of the dying Nowadays things are changing and it is more permissible yet still bold to mix them together and thus here we have just that I prefer true emotions be it aggressive or passive when going through death voyages for such are during a paramount loss of a loved one dying day by day especially one's mother as in Days In the second section of the book is the prose poem Recapitulations or The Meatpackers Boy autobiographical in content Also a few additional independent poems on Vietnam America An Old Furnace and Commentary Trials of a Poet The third section four new poems Coming of Old Age In section four a letter from Pope Francis to the author quotes and the author's books Much of the poetry in this book Days is done in a free verse style long line form other than the confessional grieving poetry on the death of the poet's mother a very deserted overwhelming human undertaking Rosa Pealoza This is the poet's 47th book 16th in poetry He lives in Lima Peru and in the Andes in Huancayo with his wife Rosa he is from Minnesota and has won numerous awards for his writings Presently working on several books Back picture of the author taken in Huancayo 2011
