De Levendes Land:

De levendes land Harry Søiberg, 1921 Dissertations, 1897-1945 Københavns universitet, 1927 Nordic Utopias and Dystopias Pia Maria Ahlbäck, Jouni Teittinen, Maria Lassén-Seger, 2022-11-24 The Nordic countries have long been subject to certain idealised even utopian imaginaries particularly with regard to images of pristine nature and the societal ideals of democracy equality and education On the other hand such projections inevitably invite dissent irony and intimations of the utopia s dark underside Things may yet take or may have already taken a dystopic course The present volume offers twelve contributions on utopias and dystopias in Nordic literature and culture Geographically the articles cover the Nordic countries of Denmark Finland Norway and Sweden as well as the autonomous area of Greenland Through the articles varied subjects ranging from avant garde literature and long poems to noir TV series young adult fiction popular historiography and political discourse in literature outside of Norden the volume brings forth a historically rich multi layered picture of social cultural and environmental imagination in the Nordic countries Nordic Utopias and Dystopias is thus of interest not only to specialists in dystopian and utopian research but more broadly to scholars of literature and culture and the political and social sciences especially but not exclusively in the Nordic context De Levendes Land. I-III. Harry Søiberg, 1921 European Romanticism Stephen Prickett, 2014-04-14 Romanticism was always culturally diverse Though English language anthologies have previously tended to see Romanticism as predominantly British the term itself actually originated in Germany where it became the banner of a Europe wide movement involving the profound intellectual and aesthetic changes which we now associate with modernity This anthology is the first to place British Romanticism within a comprehensive and multi lingual European context showing how ideas and writers interconnected across national and linguistic boundaries By reprinting everything in the original languages together with an English translation of all non English material in parallel on the opposite page it offers a new intellectual map of Romanticism Material is thematically arranged as follows Art Aesthetics The Self History Language Hermeneutics Theology Nature The Exotic Science While focusing on European texts the inclusion of essays on their North American and Japanese reception means that Romanticism can be seen as a global phenomenon influencing a surprising number of the ways in which the modern world sees itself A History of Danish Literature Sven Hakon Rossel, 1992-01-01 Volume 1 Catalogue of the London Library, St. James Square, London.
