Dead Hero:

Conversing with Angels and Ancients Joseph Falaky Nagy, 2018-09-05 How does a written literature come into being within an oral culture and how does such a literature achieve and maintain its authority Joseph Falaky Nagy addresses those issues in his wide ranging reading of the medieval literature of Ireland from the writings of St Patrick to the epic tales about the warrior C Chulainn These texts written in both Latin and Irish constitute an adventurous and productive experiment in staging confrontations between the written and the spoken the Christian and the pagan The early Irish literati primarily clerics living within a monastic milieu produced literature that included saints lives heroic sagas law tracts and other genres They sought to invest their literature with an authority different from that of the traditions from which they borrowed native and foreign To achieve this goal they cast many of their texts as the outcome of momentous dialogues between saints and angelic messengers or remarkable interviews with the dead who could reveal some insight from the past that needed to be rediscovered by forgetful contemporaries Conversing with angels and ancients medieval Irish writers boldly inscribed their visions of the past onto the new Christian order and its literature Nagy includes portions of the original Latin and Irish texts that are not readily available to scholars along with full translations Programmes Philadelphia Orchestra, 1923

Transgenerational Remembrance Jessica Nakamura, 2020-01-15 In Transgenerational Remembrance Jessica Nakamura investigates the role of artistic production in the commemoration and memorialization of the Asia Pacific War 1931-1945 in Japan since 1989 During this time survivors of Japanese aggression and imperialism previously silent about their experiences have sparked contentious public debates about the form and content of war memories The book opens with an analysis of the performance of space at Yasukuni Shinto Shrine which continues to promote an anachronistic veneration of the war After identifying the centrality of performance in long standing dominant narratives Transgenerational Remembrance offers close readings of artistic performances that tackle subject matter largely obscured before 1989 the kamikaze pilot Japanese imperialism comfort women the Battle of Okinawa and Japanese American internment These case studies range from Hirata Oriza's play series about Japanese colonial settlers in Korea and Shimada Yoshiko's durational performance about comfort women to Kondo Aisuke's videos and gallery installations about Japanese American internment Working from theoretical frameworks of haunting and ethics Nakamura develops an analytical lens based on the Noh theater ghost Noh emphasizes the agency of the ghost and the dialogue between the dead and the living Integrating her Noh inflected analysis into ethical and transnational feminist queries Nakamura shows that performances move remembrance beyond current evidentiary and historiographical debates Body and Mind Walter Byron McDougall, 1911 Body and Mind William McDougall, 1911 Legends of German heroes of the Middle ages (selected from Deutsche Heldensagen). Pindar and the Cult of Heroes Bruno Currie, 2010-04-29 Pindar and the Cult of Heroes combines a study of Greek culture and religion hero cult with a literary critical study of Pindar's epinician poetry. It looks at hero cult generally but focuses especially on heroization in the 5th century BC. There are individual chapters on the heroization of war dead of athletes and on the religious treatment of the living in the 5th century. Hero cult Bruno Currie argues could be anticipated in different ways in a person's lifetime. Epinician poetry too should be interpreted in the light of this cultural context. Fundamentally this genre explores the patron's religious status. The book features extensive studies of Pindar's Pythians 2 3 5 Isthmian 7 and Nemean 7. Myths & Legends of the Middle Ages Hélène Adeline Guerber, 1909 The Children's Hour: Stories of legendary heroes, 1907 The Standard Operas George Putnam Upton, 1890 The Journal of Hellenic Studies, 1912 Famous Assassinations of History, 1882 The Iliad and Odyssey, tr. by A.
