Dead Set An Inspector Chen Novel:

Dead Set Kel Robertson, 2006 Inspector Brad Chen and his beautiful assistant Malone keep finding bodies but how are these killings connected to the murder of the Minister for Immigration Chen's unshakeable belief that there is a connection threatens his friendships his credibility and his career

A Critic at Large in the Multiverse, Xenotropism and the Awakening of Literary Expatriatism through Writing Memoirs Christine Velde, 2016-08-03 Although there have been many discussions about challenges faced by individuals going through East to West migrations there are few literary accounts about those moving from the West to the East Yet these migrations are becoming more frequent now due to advances in technology and the fact that a writer's work can now involve an increasingly global audience One way of expressing these challenges is through writing memoirs Xenotropism and the Awakening of Literary Expatriatism through Writing Memoirs exemplifies the craft of memoirs written while living in a foreign country and explains how this is different from writing from home The book is a theoretical analysis of xenotropism based on the work of three prominent writers in China's history Emily Hahn Nien Cheng and Qiu Xiaolong The author explores the relationship between xenotropism turning towards foreign ideals and practices its complexities and challenges and the writing of a memoir and its impact on mental health This discourse will contribute to new knowledge in the field of creative writing and Asian studies by illustrating how xenotropism or turning towards foreign ideals and practices results in both personal and artistic development and builds an understanding and acceptance of different cultures within an individual These processes of change and understanding in turn facilitate the writing of a memoir which is a cathartic process having a positive effect on one's mental state Readers interested in creative writing or Asian literary studies will be able to understand the creative process behind writing memoirs from a combination of personal research based literary and theoretical perspectives

Reading China Against the Grain Carlos Rojas, Mei-hwa Sung, 2020-10-28 Through an analysis of a wide array of contemporary Chinese literature from inside and outside of China this volume considers some of the ways in which China and Chineseness are understood and imagined Using the central theme of the way in which literature has the potential to both reinforce and to undermine a national imaginary the volume contains chapters offering new perspectives on well known authors from Jin Yucheng to Nobel Prize winning Mo Yan as well as chapters focusing on authors rarely included in discussions of contemporary Chinese literature such as the expatriate authors Larissa Lai and Xiaolu Guo The volume is complemented by chapters covering more marginalized literary figures throughout history such as Macau born poet Yiling the Malaysian born novelist Zhang Guixing and the ethnically Korean author Kim Hak-chul Invested in issues ranging from identity and representation to translation and grammar it is one of the few publications of its kind devoting comparable attention to authors from Mainland China authors from Manchuria Macau and Taiwan and throughout the global Chinese diaspora Reading China Against the Grain Imagining Communities is a rich resource of literary criticism for students and scholars of Chinese studies sinophone studies and comparative literature Australian Book Review ,2006
