Famine and forced relocations in Ethiopia 1984-1986 Laurence Binet, 2013-11-08 The Famine and Forced Relocations in Ethiopia 1984 1986 case study is describing the difficulties and dilemmas met by Médecins Sans Frontières MSF during the famine that decimated the Ethiopian population in 1984 1985 This famine triggered an unprecedented humanitarian mobilisation and huge media attention But the Ethiopian regime at the time also used the international aid as a bait to attract the populations and forcibly resettle them in appalling conditions In this context what should have been done when it appeared that aid was being used against the population for whom it was intended Could MSF s denunciation have endangered international aid operations in Ethiopia By taking such positions could MSF put its own existence and thus its other activities at risk

A Merciful End Ian Robert Dowbiggin, 2003 This is the first full history of the euthanasia movement in the U S It tells for the first time the dramatic story of those reformers who struggled throughout the twentieth century to change the nation s attitudes towards mercy killing and assisted suicide Original wide ranging in scope but sensitive to the personal dimensions of euthanasia A Merciful End is an illuminating and cautionary account of tension between motives and methods within twenty century social reform providing a refreshingly new perspective on an old debate
