What Are Hybrid Work Schedule Ideas For Women:

Gender Diversity and Inclusion at Work Zeynep Özsoy, Mustafa Şenyücel, Beyza Oba, 2022-12-28 The purpose of this book is to investigate gender diversity practices and discourse developed by listed companies in Turkey It pursues this aim by advancing knowledge about business relations affecting workplace gender diversity The research builds on Bourdieu's field approach and implements a Thematic Analysis following Braun and Clarke's 2006 guidelines The findings of the book are based on data collected from unstructured interviews and secondary sources such as the official documents of national and international organizations newspapers legislation and web pages of the related parties The findings suggest that the implementation of gender diversity practices may require a transformation of perspective and the conditions regarding the political economic and cultural realm for realization of a pervasive movement Due to the conservative and patriarchal culture authoritarian rule and neoliberal policies gender diversity and inclusion are not seen as issues that should be resolved through the commitment and collaboration of a field Consequently diversity management practices are instrumentalized by the business community as a means for corporate communication and image building rather than actively building a diverse workforce

Understanding Women's Avoidance of Leadership in Higher Education Schnackenberg, Heidi L., 2025-06-27 Despite increasing numbers in higher education women remain underrepresented in leadership positions within academic institutions This disparity raises important questions about the factors influencing women's decisions to avoid or withdraw from leadership positions Understanding women's avoidance of leadership roles in higher education requires an exploration of systemic barriers cultural expectations institutional climates and personal experiences that shape career choices Examining these dynamics may provide further insights into the structural and social mechanisms that discourage women from pursuing leadership and identify strategies to foster more inclusive and equitable academic environments

Understanding Women's Avoidance of Leadership in Higher Education explores the phenomena of women's leadership avoidance within higher education organizations It examines the inequities in higher education work environments and suggests solutions for the encouragement and advancement of women in leadership positions This book covers topics such as gender and diversity teacher training and workplace culture and is a useful resource for educators sociologists academicians researchers and scientists

Africa's Green Revolution William G. Moseley, Matthew A. Schnurr, Rachel Bezner-Kerr, 2017-10-02 This volume examines the dominant neoliberal agenda for agricultural development and hunger alleviation in Africa The text reviews the history of African agricultural and food security policy in the post colonial period across a range of geographical contexts in order to contextualise the productionist approach embedded in the much heralded New Green Revolution for Africa This strategy supported by a range of international agencies promotes the use of hybrid seeds fertilisers and pesticides to boost crop production This approach is underpinned by a new and unprecedented level of public private partnerships as donors actively work to promote the private sector and build links between African farmers input suppliers agro dealers agro processors and retailers On the consumer end increased supermarket penetration into poorer neighbourhoods is proffered as a solution to urban food insecurity The chapters in this volume complicate understandings of this new approach and raise serious questions about its effectiveness as a strategy for increasing food production and alleviating poverty across the continent This book is based on a special issue of African Geographical Review
