relevant to millennial attraction engagement and retention This book is likewise for early and mid career millennials looking to better understand themselves and make compelling cases for improvements around the aforementioned in their own companies Perspective Agents Chris Perry, 2024-01-15 A guidebook for anyone looking to comprehend and prosper in the new world order In the age of autonomy two parallel revolutions are unfolding The first is a technological uprising in which machines and algorithms achieve an unprecedented level of independence Automation and AI will transform industries altering the fabric of our economy and society But this technological tide is more than a force of disruption it is a harbinger of a new way of thinking and living The parallel revolution is deeply human and even more profound As traditional structures crumble a new sense of human autonomy emerges allowing us to find meaning and direction in unexpected ways Perspective Agents delves into this complex dance between machine and man challenging us to adapt to and thrive in this new era Drawing from extensive research interviews and personal experience communications consultant Chris Perry explores The problem with using conventional wisdom to make sense of new realities How the predominant technologies of an era shape new values norms and behaviors The pioneering mindsets models resources and strategies vital to future success Through an unflinching examination of both technological and human evolution this book encourages readers to harness the potential of the Autonomous Age see the world anew through new sources and forge a path for professional and personal growth

Globalisation, Commodification and Cultural Production in Africa Kathrin Schmidt, 2023-12-04 This book engages with contemporary cultural production in Africa focusing on theatre in Sierra Leone as main case study The author provides coverage of and insights into such themes as cultural globalisation commodification the global creative economy culture and development international relations and contemporary cultural production in Sierra Leone within the context of local and global flows of people media images technologies finance and ideas Combining the analysis of theatre in Sierra Leone and its aesthetics with its policy structural and institutional context this book highlights in much detail and nuance the interconnectedness between the micro and the macro levels of cultural production between the local and the global and between aesthetics politics policy governance structures and institutions This book links the particular findings from the author's fieldwork to larger issues of contemporary local cultural production within the context of globalisation commodification and decolonisation adds a postcolonial perspective to existing theories and approaches to cultural production management and policy which is still largely missing from the existing discourse and also contributes to addressing the gap in the knowledge about the context of contemporary cultural productions in diverse African contexts This book will be particularly useful for both theatre scholars with an interest in the political economy of theatre and more broadly those seeking to understand the nuanced challenges and opportunities faced by policymakers artists and arts managers to embrace the cultural and creative industries in this context It also offers excellent insights for policymakers who wish to improve their understanding and interventions beyond superficial best practice snippets and simplified success stories

Retailing Denise T. Ogden, James R. Ogden, Robert Paul Jones, 2017-08-02 Light on the fluff solid on the basics the fourth edition of Retailing is a concise text that covers strategic issues with an eye on financial considerations and operations management issues illustrated through retail cases and exercises New co author Robert Paul Jones is Department Chair of Hospitality and Retail Management in the College of Human Sciences at Texas Tech In addition to his extensive academic work Dr Jones has over 25 years of executive leadership and consulting experience in retail and hospitality He uses an Integrated Retail Management flow chart to depict retail functions Most retail texts present students with a series of chapters that provide useful information but fail to explain how the various activities involved in retailing affect each other The 4th edition offers the student an overview of the retail process through the use of an integrated retail management IRM plan The steps involved in retailing as presented in the text are tied together through the IRM plan Expanded coverage of Mobile and e Tailing and included throughout the text and not treated as a stand alone chapter This helps emphasize that e tailing is a form of retailing that uses many of the same models as other forms Includes updated cases and real world examples And omni channel retailing incorporated throughout text

Making It Ellen T. Meiser, 2024-10-11 The restaurant industry is one of the few places in America where workers from lower class backgrounds can rise to positions of power and prestige Yet with over four million cooks and food preparation workers employed in America s restaurants not everyone makes it to the high status position of chef What factors determine who rises the ranks in this fiercely competitive pressure cooker environment Making It explores how the career path of restaurant workers depends on their accumulation of kitchen capital a cultural asset based not only on their ability to cook but also on how well they can fit into the workplace culture and negotiate its hierarchical structures After spending 120 hours working in a restaurant kitchen and interviewing fifty chefs and cooks from fine dining establishments and greasy spoon diners across the country sociologist Ellen Meiser discovers many strategies for accumulating kitchen capital For some it involves education and the performance of expertise others climb the ranks by controlling their own emotions or exerting control over coworkers Making It offers a close and personal look at how knowledge power and interpersonal skills come together to determine who succeeds and who fails in the high pressure world of the restaurant kitchen

Baby Boomer's Guide to Leveraging Social Media and E-Commerce in the Creator Economy Michael Berman,2023-08-18 Baby boomers who have retired but want to reinvent themselves and create revenue are finding new ways to stay active and engaged Nearly one in five people who remain working past age 65 are self employed Boomers are deciding they d rather start a new business at an age when their parents are retired and their grandparents are past their life expectancy. They not only have to figure out how to make their money last but they need to reinvent themselves in the second act of life. Follow these few tips to let go of the old economy mindset and transition to the new economy. Experts have been predicting a new economy for a few years now, and astute observers and analysts can already see that it is here. While several catalysts drive the acceleration: exponential technologies, the global debt bubble, changing demographics, and the recent pandemic are a select few. Even those that are most change resistant amongst us agree that the world will look very different by the time this decade ends. However, many folks are still in denial, succumbing to denial-led obsolescence. Several paradoxical changes in the new economy conflict with old school thinking and need diametrically opposite approaches. The foundations for the new economy are built on the paradox which makes it hard for old economy folks to transition out. Unfortunately, many will not make it. I encourage baby boomers to explore and engage with the gig creator economy by promoting a product or service tailored to their needs and interests. Baby boomers aged 57-75 who are interested in reinventing themselves and re-entering the workforce through the gig creator economy. This is an easy-to-understand guide to help you navigate the new world.
