How Do You Hybrid Work Schedule Ideas For Men:

Masculinity, Marriage and Rural Men in Urban China Sarah Gosper, 2024-12-31 This book explores the conjuncture and interrelationship between three so called crises facing Chinese society a crisis of marriage a crisis of masculinity and a crisis of mobility Based on sustained ethnographic research on unmarried lower class rural men from two distinct social and class categories namely migrant workers employed in the food delivery and express mail delivery industries and tertiary educated white collar professionals the book reveals how the increasing socio economic precarity of rural men and their largely unrealised desires to marry and have children demonstrates a fundamental reconfiguration of Chinese masculinity and mobility in urban China and the social impact on central Chinese institutions The book also reveals the futile efforts to fulfil hegemonic models of masculinity in contemporary China and addresses the heterogeneity of unmarried lower class rural men as they navigate marriage manhood and mobility Exploring gender relations in China and contributing to global studies of heterosexual masculinities this book will appeal to students and scholars of Chinese culture and society gender studies and social anthropology

Men in Early Childhood Education and Care Jo Warin, 2018-05-22 This book examines the current interest in recruiting and supporting more men in the early childhood education workforce Drawing on extensive empirical data from case studies of an unusual English preschool setting and interviews with Swedish male preschool staff the author explores the potential benefits to society linked to the increased presence of men in early childhood education and how this might be achieved Throughout the book the author maintains that the potential of including more men in early childhood education can only be achieved by gender sensitive practitioners both women and men who are willing to create a gender flexible pedagogy This volume will be of interest and value to students academics and practitioners interested in gender diversity and equity within early childhood education and care

The Country Gentleman ,1917 Brick and Clay Record ,1916 Brick ,1916 Essential Dads Dr. Jennifer M. Randles, 2020-10-13 In Essential Dads sociologist Jennifer Randles shares the stories of more than 60 marginalized men as they sought to become more engaged parents through a government supported responsible fatherhood program Dads experiences serve as a unique window into long standing controversies about the importance of fathering its connection to inequality and the state s role in shaping men s parenting With a compassionate and hopeful voice Randles proposes a more equitable political agenda for fatherhood one that carefully considers the social and economic factors shaping men s abilities to be involved in their children s lives and the ideologies that rationalize the necessity of that involvement
